The One-Hundred and Ninety-Eighth Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled in the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, 330 South 13th Street, Philadelphia on Friday, October 23, 1981.

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of Pennsylvania and President of the Convention, opened the meeting with prayer at 3:30 p.m. He introduced the Rt. Rev. J. Stewart Dalzell, under SO IV.4(a), for the Committee on Resolutions, moved that Resolution R-14 be put on the agenda at 5.4. This was adopted by a 2/3 vote. He announced that Resolutions R-9 and R-11 had been combined into R-20 and said that the Committee on Resolutions appreciated the willingness of the movers to merge the resolutions in order to expedite the agenda.

Stewart Dalzell then moved the following resolution which was adopted by a standing vote:

R-1: Addition to Standing Order IV.4

By action of Diocesan Council, 5/16/81, the following resolution was adopted.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the following be added to the Standing Orders of Convention as Standing Order IV.4 (h);

> No Resolution shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions or brought to the floor of Diocesan Convention without there being appended to it a list of references to sources of information and to sources of appropriate documentation illustrating both or all significant sides of the matter, unless, at the time of its presentation to Convention, its movants explain why such a list cannot be submitted; the acceptability of such explanation is to be determined by Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Standing Order become effective immediately, and that it be submitted to the 198th Diocesan Convention for ratification; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of Council be directed to inform all Clergy, Congregations, and all Agencies and Institutions reporting to Diocesan Convention of this addition to the Standing Orders.

Edward R. Carpenter, Esq., for the Committee on Incorporation, then moved the following resolutions, which were adopted:

RESOLVED: That the proposed amendment to the Articles on Incorporation of the CHURCH OF ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY, Philadelphia, be approved and that permission be given either to file

There was a motion from the floor to approve, because of exceptional circumstances, the request of St. John's, Norristown to amend Article V of their Charter to read:

"The Vestry of the Church shall consist of eleven persons, hereinafter called Vestrymen, who shall be elected by ballot, of which number the Church Wardens are always to be two, and those persons only shall be eligible for election as Vestrymen who are qualified to vote at such election."

This was adopted. Mr. Carpenter stated that this action made R-14 unnecessary.

George J. Harding, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, moved the following resolution which was adopted as amended (RE-A-1):

It has been brought to the attention of the Committee that Canon Section 21.1 is not in conformance with Article I, Section 4 of the Constitution of the Episcopal Church which provides that the lay persons representing a Diocese in the House of Deputies shall be "Communicants of this Church, in good standing in the Diocese but not necessarily domiciled in the Diocese". Canon Section 21.1 of the Diocese of Pennsylvania differs in providing that said laymen shall be domiciled in the Diocese and does not have the good standing requirement.

The Committee recommends that Canon Section 21.1 be conformed to Article I, Section 4 of the National Constitution by inserting therein the good standing requirement and by eliminating the requirement that the laymen be domiciled in the Diocese as set forth in the attached first sentence of subsection 21.1.1 with the words in parenthesis to be removed and the underlined material to be added.

SEC. 21.1. Deputies to the General Convention

21.1.1. At the Stated Convention immediately preceding the regular meeting of the General Convention, or, if the Diocesan Convention desires, at the Stated Convention in the year preceding the General Convention, there shall be elected by concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Orders, four Clergymen who shall be canonically resident in the Diocese, and four Laymen who shall be Communicants of the Church [and], in good standing in the Diocese but not necessarily domiciled in the Diocese, to be Deputies to the General Convention, whose tenure shall continue until others are elected in their places.

WHEREAS, these campaigns have frequently been promoted or interpreted as representing Christian opinion and have often reinforced untruthful stereotypes and hindered the cause of human relations and inter-group understanding, and

WHEREAS, these campaigns have been accompanied by a dramatic increase in violence against homosexual persons, resulting in physical and emotional injury and death, and

WHEREAS our call as Christians is a prayerful call to peaceful means for resolution of conflicts and the de-escalation of development and deployment of nuclear weapons, recalling the words of our Lord, "Blessed are the Peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God," now therefore be it

RESOLVED that this Convention endorses a freeze within the Soviet Union, the United States, and all other nations on all testing, development, production, and deployment of nuclear weapons and nuclear weapons systems, accompanied by appropriate international inspection, and be it further

Judge Braxton announced that this completed the report from the Committee on Elections (Appendix #27).

The Rev. Paul Twelves, Chairman of the Public Issues Committee of Episcopal Community Services, moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-12: A Call to the Church to Respond to the Human Needs' Crisis

WHEREAS, our Lord Jesus Christ commissioned his disciples to preach the Good News of the Gospel, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit those sick and in prison, and care for the widows and orphans;

WHEREAS, as stewards of creation, we are called to use our resources for the benefit of all humankind;

WHEREAS, the reduced role of government in providing social and health services unfortunately is intensifying the suffering of many in our midst;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this One Hundred and Ninety Eighth Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania calls upon the Church in the Diocese to reclaim its ancient tradition of service through a vigorous and creative effort on behalf of our Lord for the poor, the hungry, the sick, and the imprisoned;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that deputies to this Convention take the responsibility for bringing the urgency of this challenge before their congregations and constituencies and urge their congregations to work more closely with Episcopal Community Services and like agencies in cooperative approaches that address the needs of the deprived, including the exhortation to government officials at all levels to fulfill their responsibility to meet the needs of these citizens.

The Very Rev. Hugh Dickinson, Chairman of the Bishop's Diocesan Committee on Family Life Ministry, reported on behalf of that Committee. His report is attached to these minutes as Appendix #20.

John L. Harrison, Esq., Chairman of the Finance and Property Committee of Diocesan Council, reported for his Committee and introduced Mr. Andrew McA. Hunter, Chairman of the Diocesan Program-Budget Committee. Mr. Hunter presented the Proposed Program-Budget for 1982. The Rev. Joseph I. Moore moved the following resolution which was adopted as amended by the Rev. Glenn Matis:

R-2: Resolutions Proposed Diocesan Program-Budget for 1982

Resolution A.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopts the proposed Diocesan Program-Budget for 1982, as presented by the Diocesan Program-Budget Committee and adopted for presentation by Diocesan Council. (With an amendment which increases the allocation for COAC to $330,000.00.)

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolution B.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania continues the practice of suspending Diocesan Canons 7.2, 7.3, 7.4, which are concerned with assessments for the Support of the Episcopate and for Convention and Diocesan expense.

Note: "Note 1," p. 102, Journal, 192nd Annual Convention: "The 187th Diocesan Convention on October 3, 1970 passed the following resolution which has been reaffirmed at each successive Diocesan Convention:

"RESOLVED, that Diocesan Convention, at its meeting held October 2 and 3, 1970, accepts and approves the elimination for budgetary purposes of the Assessment on each parish and mission and the combining of the Assessment and Missionary budget into a single budget. (This support of the office of the Bishop is and must be a first priority and obligation under this method if developing the budget.)"

The following resolution was also adopted:

Resolution C.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania authorizes that the following procedures be employed by Diocesan Council for reviewing the income and expenditures called for in the 1982 Diocesan Program-Budget:

(1) The receipt of the final pledge from each congregation by December 31, 1981; but no later than January 31, 1982.

(2) The amendment of the 1982 Diocesan Program-Budget by Diocesan Council at any time during 1982 if the total income differs significantly from the total anticipated in the 1982 Diocesan Program-Budget, as adopted by Diocesan Convention.

Note: The above procedures have been adopted annually by Diocesan Convention since the 187th Diocesan Convention, October, 1970.

The Rev. Donald R. Simpson, Vice Chairman of the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions, moved the following resolutions which were adopted:

R-4: Resolutions: Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions

I. Salaries

WHEREAS the salary ranges for the six responsibility levels for clergy positions have been in effect since January 1, 1981 and no longer reflect adequate compensation, particularly in view of the continued high rate of inflation, and

WHEREAS the intent of Diocesan Convention resolutions over several years has been that salaries should not be at the minimum of the range, but rather progress through the range based on performance evaluation, the salary for a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure being at the range mid-point, and

WHEREAS a 1981 survey showed that less than 23% of level "C" congregation had reached the mid-point; less than 22% level "D", about 30% of level "E"; and 60% of level "F";

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the mid-point of the salary range is considered to be, at least, the appropriate salary for a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that beginning January 1, 1982, the cash salary range mid-points (exclusive of housing and utility allowance) for full-time clergy be raised 8%, as follows:

Responsibility Level of Position (See Note 1 on back of page)	Current (1981) Cash Salary Mid-Points	New Cash Salary Mid-Points Beginning January 1, 1982
A	$13,245	$14,305
B	16,087	17,375
C	18,335	19,800
D	19,690	21,265
E	23,265	25,125
F	26,492	28,610

MINIMUM SALARIES are twenty-five percent (25%) below mid-point.
THE TOP OF THE RANGE is twenty-five percent (25%) above mid-point.

II. Housing and Expenses

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 198th Convention reaffirms similar resolutions adopted by previous Conventions:

BE IT RESOLVED that where congregations do not provide church-owned housing and paid utilities that a housing allowance be paid in lieu thereof that will enable the cleric to provide his own adequate and satisfactory housing (including utilities) in the community, this housing allowance being paid in addition to the cash salary and in no case shall be less than thirty percent (30%) of salary.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Diocesan Convention directs congregations to reimburse clergy for all business-related travel expense, including public transportation and automobile expenses. Where an auto allowance is paid, this allowance should be no less than (1) the Internal Revenue Service standard (now $.20 per mile), plus reimbursement for tolls and parking, or (2) a budgeted monthly amount to cover the actual cost of automobile operation.

III. Assessment

RESOLVED that the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment for 1982 be $20,000 (has been $15,000 for each year since 1976).

Mr. Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Vice-President, reported for the Church Foundation. His report is attached to these minutes as Appendix #25.

The Rev. Carl W. Bell, Chairman of the Executive Committee for Stewardship Education, reported for his committee. This report is attached to these minutes as Appendix #26.

The Rev. Mark A. Scheneman, for the Diocesan Council Committee on Clergy Compensations, moved the following resolution which was adopted as amended:

R-3: Resolution from Council Committee on Clergy Compensation

WHEREAS the last two Diocesan Conventions have heard concerns expressed about some clergy who are paid at or near the minimum salary, and

WHEREAS the Diocesan Council has appointed this committee to study these concerns and make recommendations for their improvement, and

WHEREAS resolutions passed at the last several Diocesan Conventions have urged that compensation for competent clergy should progress toward the mid-point of the salary range, and

WHEREAS in the responsibility levels "D" and "C" the total number of clergy at the mid-point in "D" dropped from 30% in 1980 to 22% in 1981. The number of clergy at the mid-point in "C" rose only from 20% to 23%, clearly indicating that progress through the salary range is not occurring, and

WHEREAS the Diocesan Canon 7 concerning the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment only provides funds to compensate clergy up to the minimum salary and not further into the salary range,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that all congregations review the salaries of their clergy with the intent that progress through the range is accomplished, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this progress be based on performance evaluation and that the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions be asked to provide the parishes with models for salary progression and performance evaluation, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that during 1982 a detailed study of the extent of the problem of those clergy not progressing toward the mid-point be made under the direction of the Diocesan Council, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that to accomplish the above, the Diocesan Council initiate preparations for changes in Diocesan Canon 7 to be introduced at the 199th Diocesan Convention. Such changes will permit the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions to use funds provided by the Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment to assist congregations which, because of limited financial resources, are unable to fund compensation so that their clergy can progress through the salary range.

The following resolution, to be known as R-21, was moved by the Rev. Stanley Manwaring and adopted by the Convention as follows:

R-21: Resolution on Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter

WHEREAS the Eleventh Lambeth Conference (1978) took note of the need of programs to promote the study and foster the ideals of Christian marriage and family life; and

WHEREAS the 66th General Convention of the Episcopal Church meeting in Denver, Colorado, September 8-20, 1979, commended Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter for their work in preparing for and the strengthening of marriages and the improving of the quality of family life, and;

WHEREAS the Bishop of Pennsylvania, in his convention sermon and address, expressed his deep concern, reflecting our concern, for the crisis in marriage and family life and his hope for renewal and reconciliation in these critical areas of life today, and;

WHEREAS Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter continue to be viable and creative forces in the preparation for and the deepening of marital relationships and of the life and witness of couples and priests in the Church and in the world, and;

WHEREAS the recognition of Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter by this Convention will encourage more engaged and married couples and priests and Bishops to participate in the programs offered by these renewal movements of the Church, and;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter are commended for their work in preparation for and the strengthening of marriages and the improvement of the quality of family life; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania encourage and promote the activities of Episcopal Engaged Encounter and Episcopal Marriage Encounter through its Committee of Evangelism and Committee on Family Life and other appropriate agencies, such and Episcopal Community Services.

The Rev. John Clark then moved the following resolution which was adopted by applause:

R-17: Resolution of Appreciation to the Rev. John E. Bird and the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany

RESOLVED, that the 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania extends its deepest appreciation to the Rev. John E. Bird, Jr., rector; and the staff and congregation of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, for the use of these facilities and for the kind and helpful assistance given us in putting on this Convention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this 198th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania pray God for His continued blessing upon the ministry of this congregation.

The Rev. John Clark then moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-18: Appreciation for the Work of Committees of Convention

RESOLVED, that the 196th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania extends its deepest thanks to the members of the following committees of Convention for their work, time and effort which have made this Convention and its accomplishments possible:

Committee on the Dispatch of Business
Committee on Elections

The Rev. John Clark then moved the following resolution which was adopted:

R-19: Journal and Convention Expense

RESOLVED, that this 195th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania instructs its Secretary to prepare, print and distribute the Journal of this Convention.

AND FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Treasurer of the Diocese is directed to pay the expenses of this 195th Diocesan Convention.

Under So. IV.3 the Secretary asked that the necessary Committee appointments be made. This was adopted.

The Bishop adjourned the Convention with prayer at 3:55 p.m.

STANDING ORDERS FOR THE STATED MEETING OF THE CONVENTION:

ARTICLE IV.2,5 (11/9/76)

(11/9/76)

2. No Church shall be admitted a member of the Convention, which does not, by its Charter or Articles of Association, expressly accede to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese. Each regularly established Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, now a member, or which shall hereafter be admitted a member of the Convention, may send to the Convention Lay Deputies, Communicants of this Church, who have been elected by the Congregation, including Chapel congregations from their own number, but not exceeding three in number except as hereinafter provided for. The Convention may, from time to time, provide by Canon for the election in the same way of additional Deputies, not exceeding two in number from any Parish, in such relation and proportion to the size or strength of the Parish, including its Chapel congregations, as said Canon may determine. But any Canon providing for such additional Deputies, or changing such provision shall not take effect until after the adjournment of the session at which it is adopted. In a vote by ballot or by Orders the Deputation from each Church shall be entitled to one vote, and no more. No Deputation from any Church shall be entitled to a vote at the same Convention at which the Church shall be admitted as a member. (See also Journal of 1893, p. 146, "No person should sit as a Deputy from more than one Church or Congregation.") (Adopted 10/26/74)

(11/9/76)

5. For its representatives to be admitted to any Convention, a Church must
(a) provide for the election of the members of its Vestry by the Congregation and that no person shall be excluded from eligibility to serve on the Vestry or as a Church-Warden because of race or sex.

RE-16: REPORT OF BUSINESS LEFT UNFINISHED FROM 197th DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The Rev. John F. Hardwick,
Assistant Secretary of Convention

Supporting Documentation for Resolutions

The 197th Diocesan Convention referred R-19, Supporting Documentation for Resolutions, to the Strategy Committee of Diocesan Council. Diocesan Council requested the Bishop to appoint a committee to review the resolution and to make recommendations to it concerning how this matter might be carried out most efficiently.

A sub-committee of Diocesan Council was formed with the Rev. John F. Hardwick, Assistant Secretary of Convention, as convener.

This committee reported to Diocesan Council, at its meeting May 16, 1981, with an addition to Standing Order IV, 4 (h).

Diocesan Council, acting as Convention between Conventions, endorsed this change in the Standing Orders and directed its implementation for this 198th Diocesan Convention.

This Convention will be asked to ratify this action of Diocesan Council at its appropriate place in the Agenda.

APPENDIX #7

STANDING RESOLUTION #25: CIRCULATION AND DISSEMINATION OF MATERIAL AT CONVENTION (Adopted 10/20/79)

BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning with this 196th Diocesan Convention and in accordance with the practice of Diocesan Convention since the 186th Diocesan Convention, October 17-18, 1969, circulation on the floor of Convention of advertisements and literature not relevant to the business of the Convention will not be permitted; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that any material relevant to the Business of Convention be submitted to the Secretary of Convention for decision as to the appropriate manner of dissemination and that no material may be circulated at Convention without the approval of the Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX #8

APOCALYPSE AND HOPE

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We, the bishops of the Episcopal Church, send greetings to all with whom we share the ties of membership in this branch of the Body of Christ.

According to our annual custom, we have met for a week of listening and searching. We have sought to measure the present moment in the light of history and God's word. Even as we met, violence struck down one of the world's great peacemakers, Anwar Sadat. Despite the spread of such strident alarms, we witness to our hope.

Ours is a resurrection faith. It rises from that historic death at the center of history. It prevails as a victory of life in the Risen Lord over all that oppresses the human spirit.

Christians are called in that hope to confront the problems revealed by the intense light of any apocalyptic moment. Apocalypse is the term our tradition assigns to eras of special turbulence and change — when Christians are given things to say and things to do.

I. First, we are compelled to say that never before has it been so clear that reason forbids the use of violence, or the threat of it, as a means of securing one society against another. We know now that massive nuclear overkill poised for instant use represents deadly insecurity for the super powers, and for the whole world. We know now that the real unit of security in the nuclear age is not the nation, since none can be secure by means of war. The real unit of security is the totality of the human family. The only security available to any nation is the security of all the nations together.

From the appearance of the first cudgel for bashing a predatory neighbor in the next cave, up to the conventional weapons of World War II, there appeared to be some cogency in last-resort reliance on weapons for security. With violence so deeply rooted in human behavior it becomes an agony of growth to shift to another means of security. It remains far easier to rely on instruments of mutually assured destruction than to negotiate in patient nonviolence for the means of mutually assured survival.

We are therefore prompted as religious leaders to impose upon ourselves the obligation for making this moral shift. We pray the Holy Spirit to change our hearts, moving us from violence to nonviolence. We call upon our people to join us in that prayer. The shift itself is obedience to an old commandment. Christians are bidden to mutual regard for all in the human family as expressing the sincerity of our love for God. "He who loves me will obey my commands." (St. John 14:15)

Thus the word of the Lord anticipates by 2,000 years the necessity now made inescapable by apocalypse. The Christian tradition does not understand peace in the world to mean the absence of conflict. It means instead the abandonment of violence as a way of resolving even the most severe differences.

That our actions may reflect a new resolve of leadership in peace-making, we, your bishops, have committed ourselves to a weekly act of fasting and prayer for the peace of the world until we meet again a year from now at General Convention. We call upon our clergy and people to join us in this act of devotion.

And we pledge repeated challenge to the leaders of the United States and other nations of the world that they repudiate reliance on military threats in favor of the more demanding discipline of military restraint and negotiation for arms control. We call upon our people to join us in this challenge to world leadership, urging them to press the issue with elected officials at all levels of government.

II. Second, we are compelled to say that the adequacy of spontaneous, private caring for the poor was outgrown long ago. Since the industrial revolution human society has been increasingly organized. The developed nations function through large institutions structured for education, health care, government, multinational business and the like. The care that Christians are commanded to extend the poor and the hungry cannot be accomplished apart from serving institutions.

This complex kind of caring is a heavy difficulty. The imperfections of organized, governmental help are easy to identify. Reforms are clearly in order. But we bishops affirm the rightness of this development despite abuses in welfare, medicare, food stamps and such.

What we warn against is any sentimental or cynical retreat to a simpler era of sharing, as if history were reversible. The needed reforms now underway in social services may hide such a retreat to one-on-one, pre-institutionalized caring. We trust not. We await results before judging. But it needs to be made clear now that conservative economic policy has no more saving power than liberal economic policy.

The reason for this is that money does not rescue the human soul nor the human enterprise. As a tool money is indispensable. As a savior it is an idol.

Still, there is high-mindedness in conservative supply-side economics. It insists on thrift and a balanced budget. It risks a faith in people that they will not squander their tax savings but share and invest, and so help reduce inflation and multiply jobs.

And there is high-mindedness in liberal economic policy. It insists on the worth of every human soul, demanding that human systems be servants of human dignity.

But both economic policies are flawed by the absence from both of sturdy biblical realism about our natural greed. By nature all of us understand self-preservation in terms of getting, not sharing. "Me first" is the earliest cry of the human spirit. Only the deepest spiritual and moral turn-about discloses that self-interest is served by self-giving, the whole fabric of the social order gaining thereby. So it is that our Lord's first public word is Repent. (St. Mark 1:15) Repent. Turnabout. This claims the Kingdom.

Taxes to government empower a public institution to provide for the common good. Budget shifts to increased military spending have meant government withdrawal from some sectors of social caring, and reduction in other sectors. Instantly the Church and other serving institutions must move to a higher level of involvement with the poor.

As bishops we cordially urge business and industry to advance their charitable giving as a moral response to the looming increase in human privation. We commend their leaders for such steps already taken.

To boost the capability of our dioceses to meet this new urgency of human need, we, your bishops, pledge an increase in our own regular giving, making use of our tax savings in 1981 as part of that increase. We invite our people to join us. Taxes thus saved will be taxes turned to the very serving from which the federal government withdraws. This could forge a new collaboration between public and private institutional serving, to the enhancement of the servant effectiveness of both.

The most important gift that Christians bring to an apocalyptic moment is the certainty that God reigns — no matter what the intensity of social disorder. God creates from chaos and void, not from ingredients laid out neatly beforehand. God redeems by means of an ugly execution on Calvary, not in response to the sunny hosannas of a grateful public. What this means is that the great moments of history are plausible only in retrospect. Who could have guessed that a high-hearted movement with its arms around the earth was aborning in the carnage of a crucifixion?

Let it be remembered of us, by any who read the pilgrim chronicle of our time, that those who joined hands for the journey in Christ sang their way through darkness and found it pierced by light. And the pilgrimage goes on.

The above is the letter from the House of Bishops to the Church:

Title III, Canon 21, Sec. 2(f) of the national Canons provides that:

Whenever the House of Bishops shall put forth a Pastoral Letter, it shall be the duty of every Minister having a pastoral charge to read it to his Congregation on some occasion of public worship on a Lord's Day, or to cause copies of the same to be distributed to the members of his Parish or Congregation, not later than one month after the receipt of the same.

I know you will act accordingly.

Faithfully,
The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby
Bishop of Pennsylvania

APPENDIX #9

Ladies & Gentlemen:

In addition to the fine report which our secretary has prepared for you and which I hope you will read, I have three points which I would like to make as President of your Standing Committee.

1. I would be remiss not to acknowledge the contribution of The Rev. William Musselman, who has served ably for 2 consecutive terms on the Committee. We have benefited from his wisdom and humor and will miss his presence. We all say thank you to him.

2. We have offered to our Bishop a sabbatical leave first for the purpose of study and refreshment for himself and his ministry among us; we have also done this in order to encourage Vestrys to do the same for their own pastors who after a time need a period of release and refreshment. We underscore that the initiative ought not to be with the clergyman, but rather with the Vestry in suggesting such a sabbatical, often the clergyman is hesitant to ask.

3. I would like a moment to comment on something of a phenomenon in the Diocese which has disturbed the whole Committee. It is the increasing frequency of the institution of the Canon 22 process in the Diocese. It is as though Rectors and Vestry cannot settle their differences without resolving to law. It is dismaying to have this used so frequently to end a relationship which should be a loving one. Perhaps the Church is following the secular society in its ever increasing use of the law to settle differences which many times could be amicably acquitted with a bit of Christian charity on both sides.

I mention this not because it is now legal to institute such proceedings, but rather because their increased frequency shows that there is something totally wrong in the way congregations view the role of the ordained ministry, and perhaps how that ordained ministry views the mission of the parish church. In the institution of a Canon 22, for the dissolution of a pastorial relationship, unfortunately no one wins and everyone is the looser.

James A. Trimble
President of the Standing Committee

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE
October 1, 1980 to September 30, 1981

At a stated meeting held on October 28, 1980, the Standing Committee received a Certificate from the Secretary of Convention confirming the election for five-year terms of the Rev. William J. Fischler and Mr. Stewart Dalzell. The Rev. James A. Trimble was re-elected President and Duffield Ashmead, III was re-elected Secretary of the Committee.

During the period of this report the Committee approved the election of four Diocesan Bishops, four Bishops Coadjutor and two Suffragans, as well as the calling of elections for Bishops, Bishops Coadjutor and Bishops Suffragan. Pursuant to the action of Diocesan Convention in approving the position of Assistant Bishop, as authorized by the National Canons, the Committee approved the Bishop's appointment of Bishop Mosley as Assistant Bishop for the calendar year 1981.

The Committee on Candidates was again chaired by the Rev. Michael Becker, who also provided liason as a member of the Commission on Ministry. Under their guidance, the Standing Committee approved three ordinations to the Priesthood and three ordinations to the Diaconate. In addition it approved three Candidates and certified a priest of the Roman Catholic Church as an acceptable applicant for ordination under Title III, Canon 12. It also approved the acceptance of Letters Dimissory in one case and approved non-ecclesiastical employment under §4(a) of Canon 21, Title III in another.

During the year the Committee has consulted with the Bishop concerning two Canon 22 applications, in both of which the parish seeks to dissolve the pastoral relation with its rector. Both of these applications are still pending as of this writing.

The Committee had under consideration many matters involving trusts, estates and transactions involving real estate. One of the most noteworthy was the bequest of approximately $500,000 under the will of Robert L. Montgomery, Jr. The Committee authorized the consolidation of a number of small trusts that had sufficiently broad purposes not to warrant separate existence.

Sales of several real estate properties were approved and advice has been given with respect to a number of other transactions, some of which are still pending. In addition, a number of lease renewals were approved. All parishes are reminded that it is most important in proposed sales involving property the title to which is not in the Church Foundation to make sure that competent counsel is retained to ascertain whether there are restrictions or conditions with respect to sale and to make sure that property corporate procedures are followed. In addition attention is drawn to the Committee's detailed statement of policy with regard to real property, copies of which can be obtained from Church House.

The Committee has been monitoring the progress of the long awaited new headquarters at Rittenhouse Square and has authorized John Rettew, Controller of the Diocese to make such arrangements with the owner as may facilitate the completion of the building. Many thanks are again due to him and to Geoffrey Stengel, Executive Vice President of the Church Foundation, for their extensive efforts and expertise on behalf of the Standing Committee's real estate function during the past year.

The Committee approved nominations to the governing bodies of various organizations related to the Diocese.

Arrangements continue on the project to catalogue and preserve the Diocesan Archives in consultation with the National Endowment for the Humanities. A $27,000 grant has been received from that body, a contract has been entered into between the Diocese and the Presbyterian Historical Society for housing and care of the items and the Rev. F. Lee Richards has agreed to serve as project director. An archivist has been identified and offered a position.

The Standing Committee considered the budget for the Episcopal Function of the Program, Budget of the Diocese for 1981.

The Bishop continued to consult with the Committee on a variety of matters including among others, personnel, public relations, communication with the News Media and public officials, the business of General Convention, and other administrative questions. The Committee also monitored several pieces of proposed state legislation of interest to the Diocese.

The Committee has been meeting in the offices of the Diocese on the fourth Tuesday of every month except July and August. Advance notice is requested from persons who wish to appear on particular matters in order to facilitate the scheduling of Committee business.

Respectfully submitted,
Duffield Ashmead, III
Secretary

BISHOP'S ADDRESS
198th ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA
October 23/24, 1981
THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY

THE CHURCH: Little, Local, Large

—Christ's Ministry of Reconciliation—

James the Just, blood relative of our Lord and first Bishop of Jerusalem, is an appropriate patron for our annual convention, and we rightly honor him this day in our calendar. Although we do not have a definitive biography of his episcopate, which had its awkward moments, Eusebius, quoting an earlier ecclesiastical historian of the Jewish Christian Church, Hegesippus, describes James as a holy, prayerful, and abstemious man, who converted many to Jesus. James, indeed, was such a successful Christian apologist that a perturbed faction in Jerusalem, led by the high priest, Annas II, had him hurled from the roof of the Temple and beaten to death. That diocese played for keeps! As to James' physical appearance, he did not cut his hair or oil his body — facts which pale in the light of his great and persistent competence in and commitment to the Christian ministry of reconciliation, particularly with regard to the intense controversy and disagreement raging at that time about Jewish and Gentile Christian converts and whether the latter should be circumcized. James, as bishop of Jerusalem, successfully led the infant Church through its first convention resolving this hot issue with the words: "My judgment therefore is that we should impose no irksome restrictions on those of the Gentiles who are turning to God." (Acts 15:19). This dictum underscored the truth that the Christian Church was not a sect of Judaism. But it was, in the eyes and hearts of those early followers of Jesus Christ, a legitimate participant in the covenant with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and, therefore, committed to the mission to be a "herald of good tidings" (Isaiah 40:9), to "bring justice to the nations" (Isaiah 42:1), to be "a covenant to the people, a light to the nations" (Isaiah 42:6). This covenanted community of the Lord's resurrection — which was the Way, the Truth, and the Life — could now break out across the Mediterranean World — west and east, south and north — across a fractured and splintered, pagan and superstitious, hedonistic and militaristic, world — with the story and with the witness of God's faithfulness to his people, his reconciling love — a love which knows no difference between Jew and Gentile, bond or free, male or female. Thus the universal mission of Second Isaiah was recaptured: to be a light for the nations, to be a faithful witness to the Oneness of God and the moral order — toward the day of a mended creation: a day which would see the ancient bond between God and His world — between God and Noah — restored . . . a day in which "the whole created universe" groaning "in all its parts as if in the pangs of childbirth" (Romans 9:22) awaits the rebirth, the adoption signifying the reconciling act of God the Father. The day in which all the raw sinfulness of humankind, all the terror and evil in humanity crying out for transformation and renewal will experience that transformation and renewal which comes from the reconciling act of love of a just, faithful and loving creator and ruler. "In Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself." (II Corinthians 5:19). Again, we rehearse that magnificant verse enshrined in our 1972 diocesan statement of purpose. The apostle Paul states it clearly: the always loving and just creator God offers to us —sinners and our sinful society — the undeserved gift of reconciliation, the mending of His creation. This God-given covenant of reconciliation, our reincorporation, redemption, and restoration, enables and commits us in turn to His ministry of reconciliation. God in Christ has initiated and activated this ministry, and called us to respond by actively participating and expressing His healing, mending, and reconciling ministry in His world.

Three symbols of the broken world stand out for me tonight:

First: broken marriages.

Over the past five years I have been asked by the clergy of our diocese, in accordance with our canonical procedure, Canon 18, to review and advise upon some 1,200 applications for remarriage.

Second: broken covenants.

Currently I have before me three canonical requests, Canon 22, for the dissolution of the pastoral relation — rector and parish — and have been involved with four other involuntary clerical resignations during the past year.

Third: violent breaking of authority.

Since our last Diocesan Convention, we have witnessed the attempted assassinations of our nation's president, and Pope John Paul II, and the successful assassination of the president of Egypt.

I cite these three symbols merely because they point to areas of our human condition that concern us: marriage and the quality of family life; the Christian congregation, priest and people — an extended family; and the political, social, economic, educational, and environmental milieu of our nuclear age — all are descriptions of relationships in and through which the people of God experience His covenant of love and mission. We can only paint these three scenes tonight with very broad and bold brushes; but we Christians, ministers of reconciliation, cannot avoid the realities suggested by these symbols.

(1). Marriage and family life: Christian marriage is a solemn and public covenant between a man and a woman in the presence of God. This bond and covenant of marriage was established by God in creation, and marriage vows are lifetime, blessed and sanctified by God. The prophet Hosea and the writer of the letter to the Ephesians saw the married state as a way of understanding the covenanted relationship between God and His people, between Christ and His Church. God never promised the married a convenant of perpetual happiness, joy, and sensual pleasure. His covenant calls for companionship and mutual caring, self-sacrifice and self-discipline, forgiveness and forgivingness: a lifestyle of loving obedience and an obedient love.

I am persuaded that what is needed now is a more faithful and courageous, timely and intentional, persistent and persuasive, expression and activation of Christ's ministry of reconciliation. This ministry of reconciliation, of faithfulness and active continuing forgiving and being forgiven will help to restore the sacredness of Christian marriage and family life. For a variety of reasons and rationalizations, we frequently quit too quickly.

(2). The Christian congregation — an extended family: The ministry of the rector and lay persons in the organized and gathered congregation of God's people is to represent

Christ and His Church; to bear witness to Him wherever we may be; and, according to the gifts given us, to carry on Christ's work of reconciliation in the world; and to take our place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church. It is clear to me that when a rector and a congregation become overly concerned about their own internal housekeeping and expend most of their energies and resources locally for their own benefit and gratification that congregation, and the ministry they share with the rector are on a death trip. Life is found in loving and living for others; priest and people of God must be about Christ's work of reconciliation in the world, venturing forth on His mission.

(3). The assassinations: These three violent and horrible episodes of intentional death and human destruction symbolize and reflect all that is broken and fractured in the world. Our whole human condition in our current nuclear age is afflicted and infected with poverty and hunger, oppression and injustice, racism and sexism, and all the sub-humanism of the world's materialistic and militaristic nations.

Just the listing of these conditions is depressing and demoralizing; but we, given the ministry of reconciliation, affirm that God in Jesus Christ has redeemed this world, has enacted in a final way God's faithfulness and reconciling love and that this reconciliation of a sinful and fallen creation can be realized in these situations if men and women offer themselves as the instruments and agents of His will. Certainly the priority of a Church Convention agenda must be translating this ministry into action, into programs and projects, which bring this restoration and redemption, this hope for life, to people. I shall not itemize all these matters, but we are gratified that two recognized and responsible leaders of our community — Mr. Wilson Goode, Managing Director of the City of Philadelphia, and Mr. Robert Edgar, Congressman from Delaware County — will be with us to speak on housing and world hunger, respectively. Certainly, these are two areas — housing and hunger — where we Christians in this diocese can mobilize and discipline our resources so that God can use even us in His cause of caring for the homeless and hungry.

There they are — little, local, large: the little church — the family; the local church — priest and people; the large church and the world — the church in but not of the world.

Bishoping — the ministry of reconciliation — James of Jerusalem, 1st Century — Lyman of Pennsylvania, Southeasten section of the Commonwealth, 20th Century. We have been most fortunate to have had Brooke Mosley sharing this bishoping here with us for the past 7 years — competent and consecrated, pastoral and proficient, qualified and compassionate. At the end of this year he will move over to another lane labled "retired for better service"; but happily and joyously he will continue to share our episcopal ministry, particularly with regard to visitations to and consultations with the clergy and congregations. This modification of his responsibilities has raised questions in the minds of some people, including myself, as to how we should express and enrich our episcopal ministry in this diocese in the years ahead. I have discussed these concerns with the Standing Committee. Foremost, I am committed to keeping my mind and thought open to various ways and means of expressing this episcopal ministry; but at this time, supported by the Standing Committee, you should know that 2 years from now, in the fall of 1983, I intend to ask this Convention to initiate the canonical process for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of this diocese.

I, of course, intend to continue seeking inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit in choosing people and fashioning structures which will best express this bishoping and which will share with the many other ministries of this diocese, because we are all called to represent Christ and His Church, and to act in His name for the reconciliation of the world and the building up of His Church. "In Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself."

APPENDIX #11

Bishop Ogilby, Bishop Mosely, Delegates to Convention and Guests

A funny thing happened on our way through 1981. Last year at this time, you approved a balanced budget of $1,525,000, predicated on our usual conservative estimate of income. Happily, our estimates proved so conservative that in May of this year, we revised our income estimates upward by $100,000 and adjusted the expense budget accordingly. While from an accuracy standpoint, underestimating income is just as bad as overestimating income; it is much more pleasant to report. Furthermore, we anticipate that we will achieve the revised income and perhaps exceed it slightly.

Our financial condition is noteworthy only in that it isn't noteworthy at all. If, after you have had a chance to review the financial data in your packets, you have any questions, please direct them to John Rettew or me and we will try to answer them.

In response to concerns expressed in this and other forums, the Guidelines for Outside Giving were revised for 1982. The categories of General Purpose Income have been revised upwards to reflect inflation, both retrospectively and prospectively. Also, an alternate method of calculation has been provided to help those parishes that have fallen behind, to catch-up. In making these changes, however, we have not lost sight of the theology on which the Guidelines are based. The recommended minimum level of giving is still the tithe and proportionated giving, suggested by the Guidelines, is still the goal.

Respectfully submitted,
Philip C. Howse

APPENDIX #12

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

Report to the 198th Convention
October 23, 1981

Deep government cuts in social program funding are having a major impact on Episcopal Community Services. Our mandate has not changed. We have that same wonderful opportunity — to carry out the ministry of Christ to a broken world, to care for "the least of these", our brothers and sisters. The events of the past year have led us at ECS to concentrate on four critical questions.

Whom should ECS serve?

Since its beginnings 111 years ago, ECS has served the poor and the powerless. These are the very old and the very young. They are the people of all ages who have few resources of their own. Often they have the worst health care and live in the poorest neighborhoods. They have the highest death rates and the shortest life spans. They are the ones hardest hit by rising unemployment and the ones most victimized by crime. Many of them are minorities — Black or Hispanic.

As decisions about other issues and programs are made, the effects on this population are of primary concern. Addressing the needs of the poor continues to be ECS's priority.

How should ECS operate to provide this service?

Over the years ECS has developed a number of operating methods. One is direct personal service — counseling with families, for example, or serving hot meals to homebound elderly or geriatric rehabilitation medicine. A second method is working cooperatively with other community organizations, both secular and church-related. Our participation in the Philadelphia People's Bail Fund is a good example. A third method of operation is advocacy — to act as the voice for those who otherwise would not be heard, seeking support for legislation which would help — or, conversely, working to defeat those measures which would harm — the poor and powerless. Advocacy may require calling public agencies to task when they are not fulfilling their responsibilities.

ECS believes all three methods must be integrated in a proper mix, within budget restraints and current needs. We are struggling to develop a proper emphasis for these times.

Where should ECS be located?

At present ECS operates from the All Saints'/Springfield campus in Wyndmoor and the two buildings (Old St. Paul's Church and the Bishop Stevens House) on Third Street in Philadelphia. We also have the senior citizens' center and teen parents program on Girard Avenue as well as two residences in West Philadelphia, formerly used as group homes. Some of these structures are in need of considerable renovation. Others seem removed from where our target population lives.

ECS is considering a variety of options for the location of our staff which will tie in to our long range program needs and will provide the best base to serve our clients.

- Retaining Old St. Paul's and possibly Bishop Stevens House and making the repairs needed for safety
- Vacating Old St. Paul's and selling Bishop Stevens House, and relocating in:

  —an under-utilized facility of an urban parish

  or

  —one of the West Philadelphia residences ECS now owns

  or

  —a building to be purchased in a low-cost neighborhood.

How can ECS further its cooperative efforts with the parishes?

As the human services arm of the Diocese, ECS is anxious to work closely with parishes in their outreach concerns. ECS staff are available to help parish outreach committees develop their programs. We are now conducting exploratory discussions with certain parishes to bring new services to their area — the opening of a counseling office in a Northeast Philadelphia parish office, for example. We believe we can find new and creative ways to work together with parishes to respond to human need.

The months and years that lie ahead will be filled with challenge for all of us at Episcopal Community Services. But it is a challenge we believe that with God's help we can meet. Our Lord has a special concern for the poor and the powerless. It is up to us to seek creative ways to express this concern.

DIOCESAN NEWS

Today we are celebrating a birthday. The Diocesan News combined with THE EPISCOPALIAN is ten years old . . . a healthy youngster about to enter its teens — and some of us think that's well worth celebrating.

In 1971 the Diocese of Pennsylvania became one of two dioceses to pioneer in a plan that has since become a significant breakthrough in communications in the Episcopal Church.

It was in that year that the diocese began to distribute a diocesan publication within the pages of THE EPISCOPALIAN. The Diocese of Central Pennsylvania was the other diocese also taking this approach to getting news and information about the diocese directly into the homes of parishioners.

This combination plan of the Diocesan News and THE EPISCOPALIAN came into being after a period of vacuum in our communications program. For quite some time, there had been no diocesan paper.

Leaders in the diocese at that time — Bishop DeWitt, Marion Hood and others — feeling a real need to begin reaching our people, launched this venture modestly, with 4,000 copies going chiefly into the homes of vestry members.

A survey taken one year later among a representative cross section of clergy and those who were receiving the new publication showed 90% of those responding feeling that the work of the whole church would be strengthened if this combination could go into every home in the diocese.

Encouraged by this response and other positive indications that communication in the diocese was coming into new life, steps were taken to move toward this goal.

The November 1981 — 10th Anniversary edition, which you have in your hands, will be mailed directly into some 28,000 homes in the diocese. Reckoning readership at an average of 2½ readers per copy, which is a standard measurement for readership, the messages in this issue are likely to be read by 70,000 individuals in the diocese.

Comments that come to us unsolicited and in no formal way indicate that readership is excellent. Many of you have expressed appreciation for the clear, concise manner in which the Program and Budget was presented in the September issue.

From the very beginning the Diocesan News/EPISCOPALIAN has had the enthusiastic backing of the bishops and staff, beginning with Bishop DeWitt and Marion Hood, and now with Bishop Ogilby and George Soule.

Not least of the advantages we have enjoyed is that of cost savings. With present printing, postage and list maintenance costs, this combination publication provides local coverage and links our people to the church beyond the diocese for a cost that could not be matched in any other way.

The cost has become a part of our diocesan budget, but each year an appeal from the Bishop raises money from readers which is paid into the budget toward the support of the publication. This has been done through a low key letter, usually followed up with an envelope inserted in a subsequent issue. This year the letter went out sometime ago. The follow-up envelope is going out with the current issue. After the costs for mailing are paid, this appeal has been netting in the neighborhood of $14,000 each year for the past several years.

Now the Diocesan News/EPISCOPALIAN is our major channel of communication with members of our churches. Linking our news and programs with those of the church in the rest of the world has helped keep Pennsylvania in the forefront in our support of many areas of work and ministry beyond the diocese, notably in what we are now doing for the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

From the outset, one remarkable characteristic of this venture has been that it is lay-oriented and produced entirely by volunteers. After the extensive work of a communications committee a few years ago, steps were taken to create a Board of Directors, and within the Board, an Editorial Advisory Committee. A number of those who serve in this capacity are here. I would like to introduce them to you with a special word of appreciation for the time, effort and special skills which they devote to this "lay ministry." It is my pleasure to serve as President of this Board and to work with other members including: (If you are here, please stand briefly.)

The Very Rev. Arthur Brunner
The Very Rev. Neal Hubbard
Sharon Moore
The Rev. Charles Poindexter
Andrew Redding
John Reinhardt
June Russell
Elouise Yarrington
Janette Pierce — our volunteer editor

In addition to serving on the Board, John Reinhardt serves as Convenor of the Editorial Advisory Committee and June Russell, another Board member, also serves on this committee. Other committee members include:

Harry Toland
The Rev. Thomas McClellan
Gar Raines
George Soule

The Diocesan News volunteer staff includes:

Kenneth Arnold
James Eidam
Sister Mary Michael
Karey Smith
Special thanks due to Emma Weighart of THE EPISCOPALIAN staff and Lou Day, our designer-art director.

I cannot stress too strongly that all of these women and men are volunteers, contributing their special skills to make Pennsylvania's Diocesan News one of the church's best.

I began by saying we are celebrating. As part of our celebration, we have a special treat for each of you. Downstairs is a birthday cake. At our earliest break, we'll be cutting the cake — and sharing it with you. So come down during a coffee break or at lunch time for your piece of birthday cake.

While you are there, take the opportunity to talk to us. We talk to you ten times a year. At the booth downstairs you'll find a blank board, some map tacks and paper. If there's something you'd like to say to us, suggest to us, or ask us — jot it down and tack it on the board. You can never tell what far reaching effect it may have. Consider what happened in Christendom after Martin Luther nailed some thoughts to a church door in Germany!

APPENDIX #14

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. H. Hansell Ritter — October 24, 1981

This past year has been a blend of the traditional and the experimental in our Diocesan program. Our seven Department Vice-Presidents have continued dilligently and conscientiously to plan and carry out programs of mission, education, outreach, and worship to the community. Many of our Board members serve on vestries, as Deanery delegates, on Diocesan Council, and are actively implementing Venture in Mission.

We thankfully remain part of the Church House "family". There our office phone rings constantly with calls for help. Our copy machine grinds out a rainbow of announcements: blue United Thank Offering flyers, yellow Lea Hill Scholarship flyers, salmon Liturgical Song and Dance, and more. In addition to our own mailings, we are part of the Diocesan mailings, and have monthly reports in the Diocesan News.

Our meetings and programs have taken us about the Diocese — to Seamen's Institute, St. Mark's, Locust St., Cathedral Village, Church Periodical Club, St. Thomas, W. Phila., St. Mary's, Wayne, Episcopal Community Services, All Hallow's, Wyncote, All Saints', Wynnewood, St. Anne's, Abington, St. James, Bristol, St. Faith's, Brookline, and St. Peter's, Phoenixville. ECW was part of the installation of the new Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services at the Church of the Advocate on Palm Sunday.

We have joined other dioceses at the annual Province III meeting at the College of Preachers in Washington. Last November the Prayer and Worship Department co-sponsored with the Family Life Ministry Committee a day of "Exploration into Family Prayer", attended by families from all over the Diocese.

The past year's budget stressed the importance of your parish donations, which enable us to carry out the many mission projects in the name of all churchwomen. With the rise of inflation and the curtailment of human services, the outreach of our departments becomes increasingly important. Aid to the Special Food Crisis Fund, 19 food cupboards throughout the diocese, totaled $2,600.00, down from other years. The new food bank will help cupboards to obtain food at the low cost of 10¢ a lb. stretching donations much farther. A special plea for the Lea Hill Scholarship was made due to increasing tuition costs, and a reminder to commemorate faithful churchwomen in our Book of Remembrance.

Earlier this month we joined women of other denominations in support of pro-choice on abortion and against the constricting bill now in Harrisburg which is supported by a strongly vocal minority.

We thank you all for your support and interest. Our work is on-going as we remember that what we are and what we do is done in Christ's name.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN, DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

ANNUAL MEETING — May 13, 1981

The 107th Annual Meeting and luncheon of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held on Wednesday, May 13, 1981, at the University City Holiday Inn, Philadelphia, PA following the United Thank Offering Service held at The Church of the Saviour.

Mrs. Hansell Ritter presided. Miss Rosamond Cross introduced the head table including The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Lyman C. Ogilby, The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. J. Brooke Mosley, the Most Rev. Trevor Huddleston, Mrs. Herbert Barron, Secretary, and the retiring E.C.W. officers, Mrs. Pat Lees and Mrs. Ethel Copper.

Father Schultz announced a Spiritual Growth Conference to be held May 22nd at The Church of the Holy Nativity, Rockledge.

MINUTES: The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were accepted as read.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Mrs. Edward K. Copper, outgoing Treasurer, presented the Annual Financial Report. The balance is $3,000.00 more than last year because more parish E.C.W.'s are represented. Mrs. Copper thanked Mrs. Elizabeth Bedinger, Assistant Treasurer, for her help. The motion to accept the report carried. Mrs. Copper was thanked for her outstanding work as Treasurer.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: Mrs. Elizabeth Higbee, Chairman of the Nominating Committee presented the following candidates:

Vice-President-at-Large — Bobbie Kenkelen, Good Shepherd, Germantown-Wissahickon Deanery
Vice-President of Finance — Phyllis Lightcap, St. Luke's, Germantown-Wissahickon Deanery

Vice-President of Missions — Sister Mary Michael, St. Luke's, Germantown-Wissahickon Deanery
Vice-President of World Services — Nancy Umfer, All Saints', Torresdale-Pennypack Deanery
Nominating Committee: Mary Minter — St. David's, Radnor — Merion Deanery
Phoebe Griswold — St. Martin-in-the-Field — Wissahickon Deanery
Ethel Copper — St. Augustine's Ch. of the Covenant — Fairmount Deanery

The motion to accept the report carried. There being no nominations from the floor, the candidates were elected by acclamation. The new officers were introduced. The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby conducted the service of Installation.

The Most Reverend Trevor Huddleston, Archbishop of the Indian Ocean, supplemented his fine sermon at the U.T.O. service by giving a description of the three island countries in his Dioceses. He began by assuring us that he is not looking after fish! His seat is on Mauritius and his Dioceses include Madagascar and the Seychelles. These islands are particularly important because they are a microcosm of all the great world cultures and religions. They are living together harmoniously and are examples of the wider ecumenism. He asked us to pray for his people.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT: Mrs. Ritter asked everybody to read the complete reports in the Annual Report. She introduced the remainder of the Board, and the past presidents. She asked for continued support from all the women. The presiding officer of the Triennial, Mrs. Betty Thomas Baker, will be visiting the Diocese in October. On October 30, there will be a luncheon in her honor. More information will be forthcoming. The amount donated to the "Food Cupboard" was less this year. This needs help. By this time next year the Diocesan offices should be in new quarters in Rittenhouse Square.

Bishop Ogilby expressed his appreciation for the fine support of Mrs. Ritter on the Bishop's staff.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Alice Barron, Secretary

DEPARTMENT OF WORLD SERVICES

Mrs. William Perry — May 13, 1981

Today ends five years of a very rewarding experience in my life. Being a member of the E.C.W. Board and Vice-President of World Services has made it possible for me to have met and become friends with some of the most beautiful people you could possibly know. Because of these people, it was possible for me and my committee to have had a very successful five years.

Each year Parish participation had increased enabling us to be of greater help to the agencies we have supported throughout the years. This year we have given very generously to the Center for Human Services (E.C.S.).

From April, 1980 to April, 1981 we collected 125 afghans, 115 girls' dresses, 26 oversize dresses for women, 25 blouses, boys, girls, men and women's sweaters, boy's P.J.s, women's nightgowns, boys' and girls' mittens and hats. A new project this year was to make bags for wheel chairs for nursing homes.

World Services has been able to supply practically every item in demand for the needy. There has not been a time in the past five years when we were without funds or clothing whenever there was a need for either. A few of the agencies receiving our help are: C.R.O.P., St. Christopher's Mission, Red Cross (Gifts for Giving) — Coatesville Hospital, Children's Aid Society, The Center for Human Services (E.C.S.), All Saints Hospital, American Friends Committee, and Steven Smith's Home. Cash contributions were made to: The Presiding Bishop's Fund, Red Cross (to purchase candy for Veterans), Children's Aid Society and U.N.I.C.E.P.

The one program which we initiated and the one that has held the interest of more parishes than anything we have undertaken is Layette Sunday. With the help of Johnson and Johnson, new mothers' received baby care products and garments, some of which they may never have received had it not been for Layette Sunday.

All donations of baby garments and baby care products have gone to: Booth Memorial Hospital, The Center for Human Services (E.C.S.), Teen-Aid (U of P), Children's Aid Society, and C.R.O.P.

Last year a class was formed at the U of P Clinic for unwed mothers. The young mothers learned to knit and sew for their unborn baby. Contributions from Layette Sunday funded this project.

"A man's mind plans his way.
But God directs his steps"
God's directions made our plans successful.

My heartfelt thanks to the Parishes that participated in our success. It could never have happened without you.

Peace and love to you always.

Very gratefully submitted,
Constance Perry

DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MINISTRIES

Mrs. Kenneth O. Grannum — May 13, 1981

The Department of Diocesan Ministries sponsored a program last December at the Episcopal Community Services.

We began the day with the Holy Eucharist — The Reverend Richard Swartout being the celebrant. Following the Eucharist, Father Swartout gave a very interesting and detailed account of Prison Ministry. Following this presentation, we enjoyed a detailed account of the current work of E.C.S. by Mr. Metzger.

A very healthy discussion followed, after which we all had lunch together. This was a very rewarding and informative day.

The Department of Diocesan Ministries strives to bring to the rest of the Episcopal family and their friends Programs pertaining to our various Ministries. May I take this opportunity to remind you of these Ministries, and to solicit your support of same. They are:

The Seamen's Church Institute
The Episcopal Community Services
Voyage House
All Souls' Church for the Deaf
The Food Cupboards (located at Church of the Advocate, Christ Church and St. Ambrose, St. Thomas — West Philadelphia, and Rafters Charities).

Let me take this opportunity also to thank my good committee upon whose wisdom I always depend.

Mrs. George Baitzel
Mrs. William H. Hepburn
Mrs. Julie Miller
Miss Clella Whitman

PRAYER AND WORSHIP COMMITTEE

Mrs. Franklin Wicks — May 13, 1981

When Davette and Dick Turk departed for Florida in November, 1980, I was asked by the President to accept her position as Vice-President of Prayer and Worship. It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve in Davette's place, and to continue many of the programs that were a part of her inspired vision. This year there were 65 programs presented in eleven parishes, as a part of the "Prayer in the '80's" Series. It was a great joy for me and for each of our speakers to visit different parishes, to join in their worship and to share with other Christians our experiences in prayer.

One of the highlights of this year for the Committee was the Family Prayer Conference, held November 22nd at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, and directed by Mr. Richard Kirby. The conference was co-sponsored by the Family Life Ministry Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and was an inspiration both to the families that attended and to those of the organizers. We hope to be able to work again with other Committees within the diocese, in an effort to pool the many resources available for our ministry.

One of our new programs is a presentation dealing with the religious life in both Roman Catholic and Episcopal orders. On March 3 at St. Martin's, Radnor, the Reverend Sister Adele Marie and Sister Marie Dorothy participated in a dialogue that revealed surprising similarities between the lives of the sisters. Another new program was presented for the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. David's. Radnor — a program of Liturgical Dance and Song, led by Mrs. Kay Stretton and Ms. Robin Frenz. This program is scheduled two other times during the Spring and will be available next year as well.

Two other days that must be mentioned were Committee Retreats, one at St. Peter's, Glenside, and the other at St. Anne's, Abington. Mr. Kirby and the Reverend Bruce Montgomery helped organize these times of study, prayer and refreshment for members of the committee. These were invaluable in giving us a new sense of purpose and fellowship and allowed us to continue our various ministries.

Mrs. Deb Anne Macaluso was asked to serve as the Department's new representative to the Board, and Mrs. Helen White has been a supportive and busy member of the committee. In addition, we would like to express our appreciation for the wonderful enthusiasm with which Mrs. Nancy Ritter, President, and Mrs. Elouise Yarrington, past President, have supported us. I have enjoyed working with each of the members of the Board, as their love of Christ inspired me to fulfill the task set before me. We are truly blessed!

DEPARTMENT OF PROMOTION

Mrs. J. Otis Smith

May 13, 1981

The year has been rewarding as we developed several new approaches to our program.

This Department attempts to fulfill its stated purpose: to give publicity to women's activities, to extend the opportunity to women for study in degree or certification programs in Christian and Human Services fields through the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund. The fund was established in 1953 memorializing Mrs. John E. Hill, president of the women of the Diocese from 1932 to 1938.

This year requests for financial aid exceeded the amount of money contributed to the fund. Two scholarships were awarded to women for 1980-1981. One registered in the "Center of Spirituality", General Theological Seminary, NY. The other enrolled in West Chester State College for courses in Counseling. Four additional applications have been received for 1981-1982. A special appeal letter was sent to all Parishes requesting the women to increase their support to this area of our lay ministry. We produced a new pamphlet featuring Lea Hill Scholarship.

Another focus was to encourage the creation of gifts, to memorialize a loved one in the Book of Remembrance, which remains permanently in the Church House, designating the money for The Lea Hill Scholarship.

The response to these requests has been encouraging. We ask you to consider them as you plan your program. Another approach to strengthen the program was a special appeal letter sent to former scholarship recipients requesting a monetary contribution to assist others.

There has been an increased awareness of your commitment to share Parish and Deanery activities. Written articles of your programs mailed to:

Department of Promotion, Episcopal Churchwomen
1700 Market Street, Suite 2616
Philadelphia, PA 19103

for publication should "meet" or "beat" the "Episcopalian" deadline:

Issue	Deadline
Summer	June 8
September	August 3
October	September 7
November	October 2
December	November 2

This department will continue to explore new and more responsive approaches to our program.

My sincere appreciation for support: Nancy Ritter, our E.C.W. President, to my committee, Janette Pierce, News Editor of the "Episcopalian" and the Episcopal Churchwomen.

May we all reinforce our love and hope for each other.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

Mrs. G. Selden Pitt

May 13, 1981

This has been a very exciting and successful year for the UTO, with greater participation than ever before, from more people in more parishes. This, of course, means not only more interest but more opportunity to help those who apply for UTO grants.

We had requests from ten groups within our Diocese for grants to be given in the coming year. Of these, only four could be selected by the Grants Committees to be forwarded to New York for consideration by the National UTO Committee. After the Annual Ingathering is totalled, this Committee will decide how many requests can be filled. From the published Grant Lists of each year, you can see how varied and worthwhile is the work done by the contents of your individual Blue Boxes and the results of your daily prayers.

The Fall Presentation Service was held on Sunday afternoon, November 16, 1980 at historic Old Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market, a beautiful setting for a lovely thanksgiving service of Evening Prayer. The preacher was the Reverend Canon Louis W. Pitt, Jr. of the Cathedral of St. Paul in Boston, Massachusetts, my brother-in-law, who grew up at St. Mary's Church in Ardmore and who has recently spent several years as the Dean of All Saint's Cathedral in Lusaka, Zambia. Following the service, a reception was held in the Neighborhood House of the Church.

The big change in procedure this year was the discontinuance of the Supermarkets for Custodians' supplies in favor of having them order directly from the Seabury Service Center as other Dioceses do. Fewer custodians were coming to pick up their supplies and more were sending in orders to the Church House for us to mail out which we are not equipped to do. This seems to be working very satisfactorily so far. As long as we all remember to check our inventories and order early enough we should receive our supplies in plenty of time for Parish Ingatherings. The ECW office at the Church House will try to keep some boxes and envelopes on hand in case of problems. Let us know if you need our help. We can also provide speakers to tell your Parish meeting groups about the UTO.

In the absence of the Supermarket as an opportunity for the Custodians to get together, time was set aside for a workshop at Program Planning Day, held this Spring on Friday, April 3 at Cathedral Village, the retirement center on the site of the Diocesan Cathedral on Ridge Avenue in Roxborough. We had a good turnout of Custodians who joined the Parish ECW Presidents and others for a service of Holy Communion in the newly refurbished chapel of St. Mary's at the Cathedral, celebrated by the Rector, the Rev. Thomas L. McClellan. This was followed by meetings, lunch and a tour of the new facility, a delightful place to live and a very attractive place to meet.

The Spring Ingathering is being held at the Church of the Saviour, 3723 Chestnut Street on Wednesday morning, May 13th. We are fortunate to be able to have as our speaker the Right Reverend Trevor Huddleston, who will be visiting our Diocese after attending the meeting of Anglican Primates at the College of Preachers in Washington, D.C. The service will be followed by the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan ECW and Luncheon at the Holiday Inn, 36th and Chestnut Street.

It has been a great pleasure to serve as your Diocesan UTO Custodian this year. My thanks to you all for your patience as I learn my job and you accept new ways of doing yours. Many thanks also to committee members and most of all, to Bette Potts, my associate, friend and Assistant, who tries to keep me on the right track.

Respectfully submitted,
Alice A. Pitt, Diocesan Custodian

FOOD CRISIS FUND REPORT

Mrs. H. Hansell Ritter — May 13, 1981

One of the quietest but busiest operations of the Diocesan ECW office is the aid given to nineteen "food cupboards" throughout the Diocese. These cupboards, independently operated, stretch through the five county area from Bristol and Warminster, through the City, to Kennett Square and Pottstown.

The Special Food Crisis Fund, started in 1975, has been continued this past year with funds dispersed each month in amounts ranging from $50 to $100 per recipient dependent upon the contributions received. Periodic contacts are made with each cupboard, and their needs questioned. The replies return promptly stating that the need is greater than ever. At a time when the "rich stay rich and the poor get poorer", as social services are cut statewide and nationally, our receipts were down again this year. Contributions come from individuals, E.C.W. groups, Hunger Committees, Deaneries and Parishes. Cupboards receiving funds this year have been the following:

Church of the Advocate, Philadelphia
Bucks County Community Center, Bristol
Calvary Episcopal Church, Rockdale
Christ Church and St. Ambrose, Philadelphia
Church of the Crucifixion, Philadelphia
Colonial Neighborhood Council, Conshohocken
Community Food and Nutrition Program, Coatesville
Co-ordinating Council for Health & Welfare, Warminster
Fish Interfaith, Norristown
House of Umoja, Philadelphia
Interfaith of Eastern Montgomery County, Abington
LaCommunidad Hispana, Kennett Square
Lighthouse Community Center, Philadelphia
North Penn Interfaith, Lansdale-Souderton
Open Line, East Greenville
Pottstown, Interfaith Emergency, Pottstown
Rafters Charities, Inc., Philadelphia
St. Luke's, Kensington
St. Thomas Food Cupboard, Philadelphia

The total amount dispensed for this year is $2,600.00. Funds received to date have been as follows:

February through April 30, 1975	$ 852.00
May 1, 1975 through April 30, 1976	6,508.12
May 1, 1976 through April 30, 1977	5,321.80
May 1, 1977 through April 30, 1978	4,608.34
May 1, 1978 through April 30, 1979	4,819.00
May 1, 1979 through April 30, 1980	4,467.65
Total	$26,576.91

Complete records of receipts and disbursements as well as many letters of appreciation are on file in the Episcopal Churchwomen's office at Church House.

REPORT OF THE 1981 NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Mrs. Charles M. Higbee — May 13, 1981

The Nominating Committee held its first meeting in June of 1980, following the Annual Meeting. The previous Nominating Committee had drawn up a form requesting nominations from Rectors, E.C.W. Presidents, and other Key Women in the Parishes. These forms were mailed late in August and were to be returned by October 1. There were very few replies; however, all nominations were acknowledged. Some accepted, others refused.

The slate, with a biographical resume for each candidate, was presented to the Board for its approval on February 6, 1981. A copy was sent to Bishop Ogilby for his approval after the Board accepted the proposed slate.

CHURCHWOMEN UNITED

Mrs. Marcellus J. Reddick — May 13, 1981

Since May 1980, Churchwomen United has made great strides. Our theme "Thus Far By Faith" has given us strength to persevere.

We have reached out into other counties to acquaint others with the functions of Churchwomen United and have asked their support for the efforts of women working together in God's reconciling love.

Our Ecumenical Assembly was held in Los Angeles, California — June 26-29, 1980 at which time our theme was "The Spirit of The Lord is Upon Me." Our president, Mrs. Leroy Hamilton and others attended.

September, 1980: We held our annual Education for Human Concerns Seminar, at which time we studied Latin America. "The Cry of My People" was one of our books for study. Four Episcopalians attended this seminar held at St. Stephen's Church, 10th & Chestnut Streets.

The annual meeting was held in October. Various reports were given. My reports of the four committees which I coordinate were: The Luncheon, Education for Human Concerns, Scholarship Aid, and UNICEF — all are under Ecumenical Development.

December: We sent out 1,000 Christmas Stockings to the sick and those in prisons and those who were in need.

January, 1981: Our 57th Annual Luncheon was attended by more than 1,000 women on January 29, 1981.

The State Assembly will be held in July 9-11, 1981 in Pittsburgh, PA. Our theme is "Color Me Christian".

Respectfully submitted,
J. Flossie Reddick, Representative

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

May 1, 1981

The Order of the Daughters of the King is a Lay Order for women in the Episcopal Church whose members take vows of Prayer and Service when admitted. Our primary purpose is Evangelism especially among women and girls — to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom and to strengthen the spiritual life of our parishes. Our Service is rendered chiefly through our parishes and takes many forms.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, at present, there are five active Chapters and seven members-at-large. There have been inquiries from several parishes, expressing interest in the Order.

Being an Order members are not permitted to raise money in the name of the Order but may participate with other organizations within the parish.

Several Funds are received nationally each year through free will offerings. Our Self-Denial Fund pays the salary and living expenses of our Missionaries in Brazil, Elizabeth Daniel and Pat Powers. Pat is working primarily in the Church of the Mediator to which the Women of Pennsylvania have contributed. Our Master's Fund Offering is a scholarship fund to help women prepare for some form of Church related ministry. The Endowment Fund is raised through contributions to the Book of Remembrance and Book of Honor and is used for Extension work of the Order.

The Diocesan Assembly this year will be on Saturday, May 9th at St. James, Bristol beginning with a Eucharist at 11 A.M.

The Diocesan Assembly is planning to host the Provincial Assembly of the Daughters of the King in October.

Anyone interested in becoming a member or forming a Parish Chapter, please contact me and I shall be glad to help.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Mrs. Joseph Smith — May 13, 1981

As has been the custom for many years, the summer season began at our Holiday House in Cape May with Sponsors' Weekend during the last weekend in June. The House was filled to capacity with sponsors and husbands. The weekend included a reception on Friday evening, Saturday breakfast, a service in the chapel, the Annual Sponsors' Meeting, a banquet and magic show on Saturday evening, Church Services at The Church of The Advent on Sunday morning, and dinner at midday on Sunday. The free time between activities was spent at the beach, walking on the mall, shopping or doing whatever our hearts desired. This annual event is a joyful time for sponsors. Most of our sponsors have been G.F.S. members since childhood — some have been members for fifty or sixty years.

Holiday House was again filled to capacity during Junior and Senior Weeks in July. Three meals a day are served. There is also a daily service in the chapel which the girls help plan and conduct. Mornings are usually spent on handcrafts. Afternoons are spent at the beach. On one or two evenings the girls play miniature golf, or see a movie. On one evening each week, the girls plan and present a program. The theme for the banquet on the last evening of each week was "BACKWARDS!" Everyone dressed backwards — some girls even managed to wear their shoes backwards for a short time. Dinner was served in reverse order from dessert to soup. The rest of the evening was given over to a walk, shopping, packing, giggling and eventually sleeping. Early the next morning, parents began arriving to take their girls home and to listen over and over to the tales of the fun of the past week.

Waitresses at Holiday House are our own G.F.S. girls who spend two weeks (sometimes more) during the summer serving guests at the "House". They are paid a salary, and receive tips at the end of the summer. They gain working experience, learn to live and work with others, and they often form new friendships. They must obey the HOUSE RULES, and they are supervised by adult staff members.

The new fall season began with Leadership Training Day in September. Branch Advisors and Leaders came to learn the new crafts for the year. Service projects were assigned to each branch. New ideas for worship were presented. Mission projects were discussed. We decided that missions should not be relegated to just one day a year at our Annual Mission Service, but contributions should be made throughout the year. We decided the members might be interested in giving a few coins during their meetings and thereby become more conscious of the needs of others. This special thrust toward missions seems to have worked well. Our G.F.S. contributes to Susan and John Harvard, missionaries in South America under the SAMS Program; to All Saints School, Bontok in The Republic of The Philippines; to Larry and Jane Golan, medical missionaries in Bangladesh; to St. John's Settlement House in Philadelphia; and, through the Church Periodical Club to the magazine "Hi" published in Ireland for teenagers.

Junior Day this year will be held on May 9 at Holy Trinity Church, West Chester. Handcrafts will be displayed. Prizes will be awarded. There will be a worship service and a program by members of the various branches.

We look forward to "Business as Usual" at Holiday House this summer. We are planning a very special service for G.F.S. Day of Prayer Around the World on the Saturday or Sunday nearest September 29. Look for our announcement!

Respectfully submitted,
Carmen T. Smith, President
The Girls' Friendly Society

VENTURE IN MISSION ANNUAL REPORT

In 1977 when Diocesan Convention voted to join the national Venture In Mission effort, the diocese embarked on much more than a fund-raising campaign. Key to the process was the increased awareness and knowledge of mission and ministry. The funds raised, however, are the lifeline of Venture.

As we approach Diocesan Convention, 1981, a major concern of the Venture Executive Committee is the considerable fall down in pledge payments. $3,513,000.00 was pledged during the last three years. Collections are over one-quarter million behind schedule. Continued shortfall means reduced project effectiveness or even failure.

Through Venture, the diocese has responded to long-perceived needs through widely diverse programs. Black and urban concerns are being met by such projects as AFCOM and Mission to the City Action Fund. Women's Resource Centers in Montgomery and Chester/Delaware Counties are helping victims of marital abuse to effectively start new lives. In addition, programs addressing needs in urban housing, evangelism and church growth, health care, theological education, services to the young and elderly, and others of equal importance have been developed. All deserve the wholehearted support of all.

When funding began in January, 1980, an evaluation process was put into place. Every six months, a report and financial statement are submitted by each project and a report is prepared by each evaluator. Evaluators then meet together to review the reports and to discuss and analyze that information. On their recommendation, the Venture Executive Committee bases its decision whether to continue funding each project during the next six months. Evaluators have met three times to date, and have proved themselves dedicated, highly knowledgeable persons with a deep sense of commitment to Venture's work. They are, and will continue, to provide maximum accountability to the diocese for the program.

By the end of 1982 most funding by Venture will cease. Some projects will end then. Those which will continue are finding new resources for their future work. They have made a strong start and demonstrated their value to the community.

The Venture Executive Committee continues its efforts to keep all in the diocese informed. And in this connection, a special "thanks" to Patricia Schaphorst who stepped in to write and edit the Venture News which is sent monthly to each congregation. Noteworthy articles appear in the DIOCESAN NEWS.

As to the National picture, Venture In Mission, as of late June, had raised $133,106,215.00. One-third is going to national programs with two-thirds remaining in the local diocese. Dioceses throughout the nation have found the results of their participation very similar to what we have found here in Pennsylvania — an increased awareness of mission needs and opportunities and a growing commitment to meet those needs.

A special "hats off" to the Venture In Mission Executive Committee — the same individuals who started Venture, planning and directing the fund raising campaign, continue to follow through and make the policy decisions required to keep the program running smoothly and consistently.

The salutary effects of Venture are immeasurable . Those who joined in this effort experienced a growth in spirit, energy and trust which can act as a springboard from which to move forward, reaching out with both material and human resources to meet the challenges and opportunities around us.

REMARKS — W. WILSON GOODE

198th ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Good morning — thank you Bishop Ogilby and members of this 198th Episcopal Diocese Convention.

As Managing Director of the City of Philadelphia, I am delighted to welcome you —and more important to thank you.

And I thank you not only as Managing Director, but also as a former co-convenor of the Housing Association of Delaware Valley and as the former Executive Director of the Philadelphia Council for Community Advancement.

For indeed in your Christian charity and your wisdom, the Pennsylvania Diocese has been a generous supporter of the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation. It is remarkable to me that in the space of only one year — since the first resolution to support the aims of PUFS was brought before your 197th Convention — over $100,000 has been committed by twelve of your congregations to the Corporation's revolving loan fund for housing rehabilitation to benefit inner city residents.

But perhaps this outpouring is not so remarkable — perhaps it is more an outstanding example of Christian commitment to recognize a need and fill it that has always been your guiding principle. In the past you have founded and maintained schools, hospitals, facilities to care for our young and our old. You, as well as other churches, have been the civilizing and humanizing body for centuries — when governments have failed, and when the lights of love and hope seem to go out all over the world.

Now, in this century and in the current decades, you have chosen to recognize and address one of the most — if not the most — pressing needs facing our disadvantaged and disenfranchized citizens. And that need is a decent home in a decent environment.

The financial commitment of your congregations over the past year has provided a tremendous boost to the efforts of the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation. Lending by PUFC is currently over $1 million in the first seven months of this year as compared to little over $210,000 in the fiscal year 1979-80.

And from July 1, 1980 through July 1, 1981, twelve non-profit neighborhood corporations received PUFC loans for basic system repairs to improve 308 inner city homes and make them livable.

That is a commendable record — and as a businessman running the day to day operations of the City of Philadelphia, I can appreciate the well planned efforts that govern the program. I can also appreciate and anticipate PUFC's even broader thrusts for the future.

And most of all I can appreciate the end product — every day of the year and particularly on Saturdays, during our intense Clean Philadelphia Program, over the past summer, I have occasion to visit every community in Philadelphia — more often the inner city communities. I have seen the houses that PUFC has helped to rehabilitate and I have shared in the pride of the proud owners.

I have seen that pride extend out from the houses into the blocks and further into the communities. And it is all a matter of dignity and recognition of self worth that should be every human being's birthright. Your contributing congregations here this morning can feel as one with this renaissance. And if there is a more meaningful measure of Christian tenants in execution I have yet to see it.

In addition to good works per se, let us examine the practical facet of the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation. PUFC is basically a conduit — it gets the funds where legitimately needed on a revolving loan basis. It gets the funds quickly and prudently allocated with almost no administrative cost. It cuts through funding and disbursement red tape — perhaps even in your church structure you have some red tape — unfortunately, in government we have miles of it.

When I was in the housing sector, red tape was the bane of my life — as a City official, I must confess it is still the bane of my life. But I am determined as all of us in the Cabinet of Mayor William Green to cut that red tape as much as possible and to run a City government that we conrol — not a runaway, fractured operation that controls us. No one and especially not government can afford that type of profligacy in these times when we must do more with less and when new and imaginative ways of functioning must be the #1 priority.

As Managing Director I have initiated and mandated numerous programs and systems to make my areas of responsibility function efficiently and economically.

It would take me a full day with you to outline them all. And you might not be interested. So I won't.

But I would like to share with you that my perception of government is that any governmental body has no reason to exist except to serve the citizens and every message I send out to my Department Commissioners and Agency Heads pointed in that direction.

However, the one specific area under my jurisdiction of interest to us today is the Office of Housing and Community Development directed by Gregory Coleman.

Mr. Coleman and myself and, I might add, the entire Green administration are totally committed to doing our part to getting the deplorable housing situation in Philadelphia turned around.

That commitment goes hand in hand with cooperating and working with such innovative private sector groups such as PUFC. Especially in the area of expediting our Loans and Grants Program.

In fact, it is the commitment of OHCD to also contribute to PUFC revolving loan fund eventually up to the amount of one half million dollars in public monies toward rehabilitation. Director Coleman and myself are both long time and pragmatic housing advocates — so that commitment should truly appraise you of our faith in the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation.

Indeed, the encouragement of more participation by the private sector is one of OHCD's priority goals for Program Year 7.

But again I want to assure you that the City of Philadelphia is absolutely aware and determined to carry out its primary role in this urban housing partnership — and to that we plan:

— to obtain 5,000 vacant properties during Year 7 — to transfer 3,000 of those "as is" to low and moderate income families city-wide through the Gift Property Program

— to have another 1,000 of those properties upgraded with major systems rehab in OHCD strategy areas

— to scatter at least another 500 of these properties city-wide as candidates for major system repair

— to enjoin all of our City resource departments in a cooperative effort to speed up the acquisition process

— to reduce by half the cost of rehabilitation whereby Major Systems will provide the basics to make a house livable and the potential owner will complete the cosmetic improvements without low interest loans if necessary — to move the housing programs into areas of the city in need — but not presently designated as strategy areas

— to further encourage non-profit developers

— to upgrade present Housing Authority facilities

— to provide funds for rehab of rental facilities — and to provide

Additional and improved rental facilities

— to assure that the OHCD office itself and its related agencies are managed to maximum efficiency and with maximum accountability

The foregoing are tips of the iceberg in the complicated and delicate procedures that should be — indeed, that must be implemented to:

1. provide affordable ownership opportunities for low and moderate income families
2. to strengthen the tax base of the City
3. to stabilize and strengthen deteriorating neighborhoods

In line with our determined direction, I cannot reiterate strongly enough our commitment to partnership with the private sector — it is essential for success that we have that working partnership.

An example is our proposed Home Improvement Loan Revenue Bond Program presently moving with favor through City Council — which will provide low interest loans through a $50 million bond sale administered by private financial institutions and operated by the Redevelopment Authority. Another is our previously stated support for the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation. On your 198th Convention agenda is a resolution urging continued and enlarged support of the Corporation's loan program. Your congregtion memberships will of course examine the Resolution and make your own decisions.

I can only hope you will look favorably on past achievements and with faith to the future. I can only hope that I have been successful in bringing before you the City's commitment to a workable, sane and fair housing program — and in expressing our view that to reach the goal of a decent home and a suitable living environment for every Philadelphia family, the fullest participation of the private sector is vital.

There will be hard economic times ahead — but it is my view that working together in a spirit of enlightened self-interest and in a spirit of providing needed help, not charity per se — we will prevail.

Again, it is my view in my religious orientation that the participation of churches toward improving the quality of life has always been and will always be a mirror to the conscience of humanity.

As men and women of the church we are fortunate to know the ultimate truth: that what we give we receive back a hundred-fold.

And we are fortunate to understand that the conditions that affect anyone directly affect all of us indirectly.

Thank you.

APPENDIX #19

REPORT TO THE HISPANIC MINISTRY COMMITTEE TO THE 198th CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Reverend Frank P. Toia, Chair

At the September meeting of the Diocesan Hispanic Ministry Committee, one of our Committee members, Mariana Manners, introduced her report on the formation of a new school at Christ Church and Saint Ambrose by saying, "The impossible has now become a reality!"

That is an extravagant phrase and yet it seems to fit, not just the formation of a new school, but a lot of other things that the Lord has been doing in and through the Spanish-speaking people of this diocese.

In August of 1976, as the result of the vision, courage, and hard work of The Reverend Warren Shaw and his Vestry at Saint Paul's, Chester, The Reverend Elïas Peñalosa came to Chester to work in Spanish.

Now, five years later, that ministry has grown into the Apostolado Hispaño, a comprehensive approach to the ministry by and among the Spanish-speaking people throughout the five-county area which comprises the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

We now have centers of Hispanic ministry at Sáint Paul's, Chester; Christ Church and Saint Ambrose, North Philadelphia; the beginnings of work in Holy Trinity, West Chester; and projected work in Kennett Square, Norristown, and elsewhere.

The newest child of the Apostolado Hispaño is the pre-school at Christ Church and Saint Ambrose which was authorized in mid-July and opened in early September! It has three teachers, two aides, one principal, forty-one students, and a budget in the neighborhood of forty-thousand dollars, including salaries and materials.

Padre Peñalosa is now the Diocesan Hispanic Missioner with the responsibility for all Spanish-speaking ministry throughout the diocese. Last month, The Reverend David Dodd arrived in Philadelphia from Panama to be the Associate Hispanic Missioner. (David, would you please stand up so that people may see who you are?) David grew up in Puerto Rico where his father was a missionary, and he served as a priest in Puerto Rico and Panama. He is living — with his wife, Judy, their fourth-grade daughter, Carma, and their not-quite two-year old son, Daniel — in the rectory at Saint Martin's, Oak Lane. You'll want to get to know the Dodd's — they're a great addition to our diocesan family! And, besides, it's fun to have a missionary from Panama to Philadelphia!

A year ago, the small Advisory Committee, which had been created to support the work of Father Peñalosa, was made the Diocesan Committee on Hispanic Ministry responsible to Diocesan Council for the development and implementation of mission strategy for the fastest growing minority in the Delaware Valley. The shoestring budget which made possible Father Peñalosa's original ministry has been increased by funds from various sources: Venture in Mission Project monies, grants from the National Hispanic Ministry Committee and the United Thank Offering, some Diocesan funds, a very generous commitment from Saint Martin's-in-the-Field, Chestnut Hill, and other sources. The Committee enjoys the services of a new member, The Reverend Stephen Price whose professional expertise is in the area of grantsmanship and funding. We have a three-year cash flow projection of just under a quarter of a million dollars which is still a shoestring when you consider the present size of the shoe! And the shoe is still not nearly big enough: the opportunities for ministry to the 185,000 people of Hispanic background in the Delaware Valley is so great, we have only begun to touch the need.

The Apostolado Hispaño is funded (with a ten-thousand dollar deficit) for the next three years. What happens after that we don't yet know, but we operate on the faith that, as Terry Fulham puts it, "the Lord pays for what he orders". And we're convinced that the Lord is ordering a strong and vital witness in and by the Hispanic Communities of our Diocese.

Only a small part of our funding comes from Diocesan sources, but we do now have a line item in the Diocesan Program Budget and this is very important because it recognizes the fact that the Apostolado Hispaño is indeed a mission and ministry of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and not just a private hobby of a few folks who happen to be interested in such things.

We are uniquely blessed in this regard. There are very few dioceses in the American Episcopal Church where the Hispanic ministry enjoys the full and enthusiastic support of both the bishop and the diocese. We want to express our appreciation both to Bishop Ogilby and to Diocesan Council for recognizing the vital importance of the church's ministry to the Spanish-speaking people here.

Finally, I want to mention just one other impossibility which is becoming a reality. The Diocesan Staff Representative to the Hispanic Ministry Committee, Jan Duncan, is learning to speak Spanish. Earlier this week, Jan told me in a telephone conversation that she was not scheduled to address the floor of convention. But I'd be willing to bet that if you asked her, she'd say something to you in Spanish! I'd like to teach you how to ask her. Say, "Doña Janice, dīganos algo en Espanol."

THE BISHOP'S DIOCESAN COMMITTEE ON FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

1981 Diocesan Convention Report
The Rev. Hugh Dickinson, Chair
Mrs. John W. Forrester, Bishop's Staff

For the Bishop's Committee on Family Life Ministry, 1980-81 has been a highly active year of developing and presenting programs. A major accomplishment of the Committee's has been the preparation of some nine distinct workshops, available upon request to parishes and deaneries throughout the Diocese. The workshops include:

Thresholds of Aging
Introduction to Family Clustering
Alcoholism, Drugs and the Christian Family
Exploration into Family Prayer
Single Parents and the Church
Separation and Divorce
Remarriage and Step-Parenting
Violence in the Family
Unemployment and Careers

Descriptive brochures of this workshop assortment have been sent to all the parishes. In November of 1980, the Committee presented the Thresholds of Aging workshop at a meeting of the Schuylkill Deanery; and during Lent of 1981, a series of the workshops at All Saints' Parish, Wynnewood, as well as individual workshops at several other parishes.

In addition, the Committee sponsored, with the Episcopal Church Women, a Diocesan-wide conference on Exploration into Family Prayer, held at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, on November 22, 1980. On September 15, 1981 it collaborated with the Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism Committee, presenting a workshop for Diocesan clergy on Ministry to the Problem Drinker.

The Committee has consulted with Mr. Richard Kirby, who is planning to develop a Family Prayer Manual, and is itself compiling a reference library on Family Life Issues, to be housed at Diocesan headquarters. On several occasions, individual Committee members have visited parish groups and described the Committee's educational offerings.

Respectfully,
(The Rev.) Hugh Dickinson, Chair

DIOCESAN COMMITTEE FOR WORLD RELIEF

Enabler of: Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, and Church School Missionary Offering

The Presiding Bishop's Fund has broadened its ministry over the past few years to give the Episcopal Church more direct involvement in relief efforts. The Rev. Samir J. Habiby, director, in reviewing this ministry at a recent meeting of the Board, Rev. Habiby noted particularly "the emerging leadership of the Fund in policy making for private and public sectors in the United States and abroad". The close relationships now developed and maintained with ecumenical agencies, with the Church Center staff, Episcopal Dioceses and networks. Cooperation and coordination with the hunger network, for example, has been a high priority.

This increased activity is reflected in the Diocese of Pennsylvania through:

1. Increased contributions during 1980
2. Stimulation of emphasis programs in parishes and groups
3. Closer relationship with the Board via their communications network.

Janice M. Duncan, staff person on the Diocesan committee has been appointed by the Presiding Bishop John M. Allin to serve on the Board of the Fund. Mrs. Duncan's assignment is with the grants committee of the Board. The Board members are persons of distinction in church or government affairs. The Diocese of Pennsylvania is particularly honored that Jan Duncan is so recognized, and that her unique success with Venture in Mission is being acknowledged.

The Diocesan Committee for World Relief has the following schedule of events and programming for 1981-82:

November 22-24 Bishop Festo Kivengere (Uganda) will visit the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Invited by Bishop Lyman Ogilby for the expressed purpose of witnessing to the effective work of the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

September 27 Workshops to assist congregations in programming for (1) follow-up events to promote response as result of Bishop Kivengere's messages. (2) World Hunger awareness programs and (3) Church School Missionary Offering programs for emphasis of theme and stewardship.

Province III Seminar October 21-22. Diocese of Pennsylvania will be host diocese. World Relief representatives from each diocese of the Province are encouraged to attend. Seminar direction is by communications network of the P.B. fund. Planning and arrangements by local committee. Bishop Ogilby will speak at one of the sessions.

The Diocesan Committee endeavors to keep clergy and parishoners informed about the needs and work of the Fund via:

Diocesan mailings, "REPORT", highlighting recent grants, Deanery representatives to speak for the Fund and periodic workshops. Services include: Samples of Educational and Promotional materials, availability of film, "Yes, a difference", Speakers and programming assistance.

Respectfully submitted,
Garratt C. Crebbin
World Relief Committee

DIOCESAN COMMITTEE TO MONITOR THE NESTLE BOYCOTT REPORT TO CONVENTION — OCTOBER, 1981

On November 17, 1979, the Diocesan Committee to Monitor the Nestle Boycott was appointed by Diocesan Council. (The boycott of Nestle products was instituted in 1977 because the Nestle Company is the largest seller of infant formula and a leader in aggressive promotional practices in developing countries. It and the other formula companies have made some changes in their promotional practices since the Boycott began but consumer advocates feel that additional reforms are needed.)

In June, 1980, the Diocesan Council endorsed the boycott of Nestle products and asked the Committee to continue to monitor the situation. The Committee has done so and, in June, 1981, reported to Diocesan Council that in May of this year, the World Health Organization's Code of Marketing for Breastmilk Substitutes was approved by the WHO Assembly. The vote was 118 to 1, the negative vote having been cast by the United States.

This was extremely disappointing. The fact that the vote was overwhelmingly affirmative certainly indicates that the industry's practices in developing countries need further revision. Also, the Code was presented to the WHO Assembly as a recommendation — not a set of regulations. Although the Code is strictly voluntary, it may have substantial "moral" impact in persuading national governments to adopt legislation modeled after the Code. Its passage is a tribute to five years of work by citizen groups in all parts of the world.

Diocesan Council passed resolutions at its June, 1981 meeting, expressing dismay at the U.S. vote against the Code and recommending that church people and organizations send letters to President Reagan, deploring the action taken by the United States, and to the infant formula companies, expressing regret that they had lobbied against the Code.

The Diocesan Committee to Monitor the Nestle Boycott endorses these actions and suggests that delegates to the Convention write to President Reagan and the three domestic companies involved:

Bristol Myers Company

Abbott/Ross Laboratories
625 Cleveland Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43216

American Home Products Corp.
685 Third Avenue

Requests for further information or for speakers at parish meetings or discussion groups should be sent to the Committee at Diocesan Headquarters or referred directly to one of its members.

REPORT OF THE SPIRITUAL GROWTH COMMITTEE TO THE 198th DIOCESAN CONVENTION

The Spiritual Growth Committee was established in the spring of 1975 by the Action Committee of Diocesan Council. It held its first meeting in June of 1975. At that time the purpose or objective of the committee was broadly defined as follows: to encourage the development of individual and corporate prayer life; act as a clearing house for resources; share with all the people of the diocese the variety of things that are happening in spiritual growth.

Present membership numbers 13 clergy and laity of this diocese plus a liaison person from the Prayer & Worship Department of the ECW. There is also a newly formed sub-committee made up of members of the committee and others interested in exploring the area of spiritual direction. Committee membership covers seven deaneries.

Some of the programs sponsored by this committee during the past six years have been: An Advent Quiet Hour led by the Bishop; the distribution of prayer folders or "triptychs" prior to the '76 General Convention, the National elections, and for some of the seasons of the church year; two diocesan Prayer Conferences, one led by the Rev. Dr. Alan W. Jones in March of '79, the other in March of '81, led by Madeleine L'Engle, noted author, speaker and lay theologian. This conference was attended by 371 persons, representing all twelve deaneries. Sixteen workshops were offered on various aspects of the spiritual life. The committee also publishes the Diocesan Prayer Calendar which is distributed throughout the diocese twice yearly.

APPENDIX #24

REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN ECUMENICAL COMMISSION, 1981

— Ecumenical Officer and Commission Chairperson: The Rev. John F. Leser
— Associate Ecumenical Officer: Mrs. Kathryn E. Darby
— Staff Liaison and Advisor: The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley

— THE ISSUE: HOW TO COPE WITH HIGH PURPOSE AND LOW PRIORITY —

Actually, in today's secular society, this is the basic issue facing all Christian work and witness. The members of the Diocesan Ecumenical Commission this year have been keenly (and often painfully) aware that a high level of energy and commitment is necessary in taking seriously our stated purpose:

> "TO BE OF SERVICE TO THE DIOCESE AND THE LOCAL PARISH THROUGH PLANNING, INITIATING, COMMUNICATING, SUPPORTING AND ENCOURAGING ALL ECUMENICAL ACTIVITIES LEADING TO THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF THE VISIBLE UNITY OF THE CHURCH.

Is this "Visible Unity" actually a mega-Church? No, but when our 1979 General Convention adopted the statement on "THE NATURE OF THE UNITY WE SEEK" — which speaks of "one eucharistic fellowship" and other goals such as ". . . all will recognize each other's members and ministries" and ". . . All will serve the needs of humankind with mutual trust and dedication" — it must appear to many as "the impossible dream". And that gap between ecumenical goal and present ecumenical reality grows even wider when the purpose of the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers (E.D.E.O.) uses such phrases as assisting in the "mobilization of the Church to commitment on every level . . ." toward this Visible Unity goal, and "to work to move the Church to provide the necessary resources to achieve this goal." This call for both action and money certainly reveals a high sense of purpose!

— WHY CONFUSE US WITH E.D.E.O., N.W.C.U., N.A.D.E.O., S.C.E.R., N.C.C.C., W.C.C.? —

Simply because we do not live in isolation. We are members of the world-wide Body of Christ . . . and our ecumenical dimension (from "OIKOUMENE", meaning "the whole inhabited earth") is an additional reminder of our wider relationship. Our Diocesan Commission, officially appointed by the Bishop, is the local arm of the national network of the Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical Officers (E.D.E.O.), formed in 1974. EDEO works within our national Church as a communicator for the Standing Commission on Ecumenical Relations (S.C.E.R.) and of our many national and worldwide ecumenical activities — such as through our membership in the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. (N.C.C.C.) and the World Council of Churches (W.C.C.), both of which Fr. Leser has attended as a delegate — and also meets annually for its own business and for joint sessions with the National Workshop on Christian Unity (N.W.C.U.). Fr. Penny and Fr. Leser represented our Diocese at the 1981 EDEO and NWCU meetings in Boston, Mass., May 4-7, which drew over 450 participants from approximately 25 denominations. Of this number, there were 125 Episcopal representatives from 76 Dioceses. With the theme "ONE SPIRIT, ONE BODY, MANY GIFTS" and The Rev. Henri Nouwen delivering the keynote address, much spiritual renewal took place through the daily Bible Studies, the wide variety of Seminars, and the sharing with our Roman Catholic counterparts — the National Association of Diocesan Ecumenical Officers (N.A.D.E.O.) — of the Report prepared by a Joint Standing Committee "On Couples Living in Episcopal-Roman Catholic Marriages".

Questionnaire results from around the country indicate a need for grass-roots educational programs on ecumenism to help bridge the high purpose/low priority gap. They also show that, too frequently, ecumenism is viewed as simply "another program" in a diocese, rather than a component of all programs. It is our conviction that ecumenism is not an option or the hobby of a few, but is the mandate of our Lord who prayed to His Father "that all may be one . . . that the world may believe" (St. John 17:21).

— BUT WHAT THEN CAN WE DO . . . TO BREATHE LIFE INTO "LUND"? —

Although at first glance the Revised Long Range Planning Group Report appears to list "ECUMENICITY" simply as "another program" (and even last in its list of 8 Ministry areas!), it actually moves the Diocese a very positive step forward in dignifying ecumenism as a major component of Diocesan, Deanery and Congregational nurture, witness and worship — through specific reference to the "LUND PRINCIPLE":

> ". . . THAT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH AT EVERY LEVEL IN ITS LIFE BE URGED TO ACT TOGETHER AND IN CONCERT WITH OTHER CHURCHES OF JESUS CHRIST IN ALL MATTERS EXCEPT THOSE IN WHICH DEEP DIFFERENCES OF CONVICTION OR CHURCH ORDER COMPEL US TO ACT SEPARTATELY . . ." (originally from the 3rd World Conference on Faith and Order, Lund, Sweden, 1952 . . . by Lambeth Conference Resolution, 1968 . . . General Convention and Diocesan Conventions of 1976 and 1977).

In a series of monthly idea-sharing and planning meetings from February through June of this year, members of our Commission responded to the Diocesan assignment of planning and overseeing "Lund"-oriented programs and agreed to these four priorities for implementation throughout the Diocese (listed in rising order of importance to us):

1. PLANNING A SUMMER ECUMENICAL YOUTH CONFERENCE (possible resource: the Metropolitan Christian Council of Churches, with whom our Church has a very active relationship);
2. CREATION OF AN "ECUMENICAL IDEA BANK" (for the "storing" of creative ideas, models);
3. RECRUITING AN ECUMENICAL REPRESENTATIVE FROM EACH PARISH (preferably from the Vestry, this person would be a liaison, communicator and an ecumenical initiator with clergy)
4. LOCAL ECUMENICAL EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS ON CHRISTIAN BAPTISM (whereby, in virtually all our traditions, we are incorporated into the one Body of Christ, not a denomination) . . . with an invitation in those communities open to the idea of planning and participating in an Ecumenical Baptism as a witness and affirmation of unity. The Workshop would help develop a Proposed Baptismal Service, if such an event were desired, and the participating clergy would baptize their own candidates. A neutral site would be chosen; Immersion would be respected and Renewal of Baptismal Vows.

With gratitude to our Commission members already at work in these areas, John F. Leser.

APPENDIX #25

THE CHURCH FOUNDATION REPORT TO THE 198th DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Mr. A. Mitchell Shumate, the former Executive Vice-President of The Church Foundation died on June 4, 1981. He was elected a Director and Vice President of the Foundation in 1962 and succeeded to the office of Executive Vice-President in 1963. He retired in 1977 after fourteen years of devoted and faithful service to the Foundation. The Board wishes to record its grateful appreciation for his years of service and also to express its great sorrow to the members of Mr. Shumate's family.

It is a pleasure to report that the Consolidated Fund continued to make progress during the last year despite difficult conditions. The unit value on June 5 was $23.28, up from $22.24 a year ago. During this period the Fund's value rose to $20.7 million and earnings for the preceding twelve-month period came up to $1.62 per unit resulting in a return of approximately 7%.

During the first nine months of the current fiscal year, net new additions to the Fund came to $110,327. There were two substantial redemptions during the first six months of 1981 for Diocesan loan programs previously approved by the Standing Committee: $250,000 for the Philadelphia Urban Finance Corporation and $100,000 for the Diocesan Pooled Income Fund. Offsetting these withdrawals, the Foundation received the sum of $250,000 as a partial payment on account of a bequest under the Will of Robert L. Montgomery, Jr.

Considering the uncertain conditions during the past year and the extraordinary growth of money market funds, the results for the Consolidated Fund appear to be reasonably satisfactory and the steady rise in the amount of distributable income is very encouraging. The Committee on Investments is making every effort to increase earnings in recognition of the pressing need of many of the participants in the Fund for additional income.

There were two substantial real estate transactions in the last six months. A house and approximately five acres of land in Richboro, Pennsylvania, was purchased for the Church of the Holy Nativity, Wrightstown, for $110,000 and the sale of a lot with improvements thereon adjacent to the Church of the Incarnation/Holy Sacrament, Drexel Hill, was sold for $110,000.

Regretfully, the St. Luke's Church and Rectory property has not yet been sold. Several parties appear to be interested but the Foundation has not received an acceptable offer. Several leases are in the process of being renegotiated and efforts continue to be made with respect to the mortgage in default on the St. Matthew's, Francisville, property located at 18th and Girard Avenue.

In the Fall of 1980, the firm of John A. Yannacone and Company was appointed as the diocesan auditor. This prompted an extensive survey of all diocesan funds, many of which were held by The Church Foundation. Ultimately, it lead to a recommendation that the Yannacone firm also be appointed as auditor for the Foundation. The recommendation was approved by the Board in January.

The Annual Meeting of The Church Foundation will be held on November 4, 1981, for the election of five Directors for terms expiring in 1984 and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Pursuant to the provisions of the Foundation's By-Laws, Convention has the right to nominate at least two persons for each Director to be elected.

Respectfully submitted,
Geoffrey Stengel
Executive Vice-President

APPENDIX #26

REPORT ON PENNSYLVANIA PLAN OF STEWARDSHIP FOR 1981

198th DIOCESAN CONVENTION

For all of us who love the Lord, and who love his visible body here on earth the church, it has been surveyed that one of the least exciting facets of the Christian life is the monthly vestry meeting. The vestry meeting rarely comes alive in visible affirmation of the joy of the Lord, or of the wonder of the mission of the Church in our broken and disease-ridden world.

Yet a small group of men and women, priest and lay, have found great wonder and witness happening when a vestry of a church is confronted with two of the most dynamic issues facing individuals, vestries, and the church in general. Those two issues are: (1) how do I respond to Jesus, and (2) the things of power in my own life, time, talent, and treasure. When done prayerfully and in the fellowship of the Holy Trinity, (real energy and insight often arises) when a worker from the Pennsylvania Plan of Stewardship comes to teach Pennsylvania Stewardship.

For example from the parish of St. Andrew and St. Monica in Powelton Village. A public statement of their vestry: "We believe stewardship is a way of life and living in the hope of forming a more perfect relationship with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. We must work to bring forth His kingdom here on earth, in this place, where we are now."

And from St. Peter's, Glenside a similar public statement of the vestry. "Stewardship is our effort to return to God's service a measure of that which He has so lovingly given us. It entails our individual and collective struggles to apply our time, talent, and treasure to those whom we seek to touch in His behalf. These included our families, our Church, our community, and the World."

Two very different parishes and yet both vestries struggled mightily with the mystical union of their own lives, the power of the Holy Trinity and the call to a radical response of love on our part not only to the Trinity but also to ministry in our world.

So we are in the Holy Spirit working once again as we have done since 1976 to bring into a baptismal relationship our lives, Jesus and our wallets — it's glorious work, all well worth the effort.

We have "come a long way baby", much of our time, talent and energy has gone into finding a new half time coordinator. In great thanksgiving to our Lord and all of you, we have grown, so that instead of having a parish priest give $1/5$ of his week to stewardship, we can have a half time person. Next week we are interviewing three highly qualified people for this position.*

That means that this will be my last address to Convention concerning stewardship. I give thanks to our Lord for this exciting work and would like to give you one last humorous story that for me epitomizes the gospel and therefore also the stewardship challenge.

A man falls off a cliff and is on his way down a two hundred foot drop. One hundred feet down he reaches out and grasps a single unsturdy branch. As he hangs there he cries for help. A voice comes over the side of the hill saying, "Yes, my son". The man cries out who are you? The voice answers, "I am God". The man cries out, "Help me". The voice says, "Certainly". The man asks, "What do I have to do?" The voice says, "Let go of the branch". The man looks down, looks up and pleas, "Is there anyone else up there?"

We don't have a stewardship problem, we have a faith problem. We struggle to help ourselves and others let go, and live in the embrace of the Lord — working in our lives, more than we could ask or imagine.

*This report given just minutes after the passing of the 1982 budget. A 425% increase in stewardship education had just been passed.

REPORT OF THE DEPUTIES OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA TO THE MEETING OF THE SYNOD OF PROVINCE III, THE PROVINCE OF WASHINGTON

The 38th Regular meeting of the Synod of Province III, The Province of Washington, was held on November 20, 1981, at the Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Virginia.

The Synod of Province III, which includes thirteen Dioceses in the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia and Washington, D.C., generally meets every three years prior to the General Convention.

The deputation from the Diocese of Pennsylvania, consisting of the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, the Rev. Herbert Rowe, Janice Duncan and Harry C. Barbin, left by auto from Bishop Ogilby's home at 6 a.m., arriving at the meeting at 9:00 a.m.

Bishop Ogilby, as President of the Synod, presided at the regular meeting. The delegates approved the report of the Committee on Finance which provided for a budget of approximately $3,700.00. The principal source of revenue is from assessment from the thirteen Dioceses at $225.00 each.

The delegates re-elected Bishop Ogilby as President of the Synod for another term. The Rev. Canon Kermit L. from the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania was elected as a Representative of Province III to the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church.

A resolution was adopted providing that the Alcoholism Commission of Province III gather information from the Dioceses regarding the work of their Committees on Alcoholism and presenting it to the General Convention in 1982.

Various committee and organization reports were presented.

The keynote address entitled "Living with Limits" was given by The Rev. Charles A. Cesaretti, Public Issues Officer of the Episcopal Church Center.

After lunch, the delegates attended four pre-assigned workshops as follows:

1. "Living Simply" — Dr. David Crean, Hunger Officer, Episcopal Church Center, N.J., Leader
2. "Living Within The Global Community" — Mr. Moorehead C. Kennedy, The Cathedral Peace Institute, Cathedral St. John The Divine, N.Y., Leader
3. "The Arms Race and National Priorities" — Ms. Bette Bono, Coalition For A New Foreign and Military Policy, Washington, D.C., Leader
4. "Global 2000 — Looking Beyond Survival" — Dr. Robert McCann, Center for Theology and Public Policy, Washington, D.C., Leader

This reporter attended the Global 2000 Workshop which discussed the report of a three-year Presidential Commission study with the same name. The report made shocking projections of the nature and character of the world in the year 2000 and thereafter with respect to population, environment, hunger and energy.

Following a celebration of the Eucharist at 3:30 p.m. in Immanuel Chapel, the meeting was adjourned.

A Statement on the Urban Mission of COAC presented to
The Bishops's Select Committee, May 14, 1981
by
The Right Reverend J. Brooke Mosley

COAC is a task force of fifteen people. COAC stands for "Coalition of Aided Congregations."

The Coalition of Aided Congregations includes some congregations from the rural area and suburban areas but, for the most part, its members are urban.

Its Task Force is made up of fifteen persons who are elected at an annual meeting by representatives from the Aided Congregations. Its annual meeting is in November and those fifteen people meet once a month on the second Saturday of each month at meetings that are open to everyone, with average attendance from thirty to fifty people at every meeting. Everyone is allowed to speak and usually everyone does speak but only Task Force members vote. "Aided Congregations" in this Diocese, as you know, is a legal term for congregations that were formerly parishes but are no longer able to support themselves according to Diocesan standards; and it also includes the Missions of the diocese. A member of COAC does not necessarily receive financial aid. Some do. Some do not.

The objectives of COAC are:

1. To determine the needs of congregations in regard to ordained ministry in the utilization of real property;
2. To establish criteria and priorities for Christ's mission, as interpreted by COAC itself;
3. To determine financial subsidies (which was one of the reasons why COAC was created in the first place, so that financial subsidies were not decided only by the Bishop and his staff.)

In order to reach the above objectives, COAC employs the following strategies:

1. We visit each other. Members of COAC visit a particular congregation, share its worship, meet with its vestry, and try to learn about each other. Then, when we meet on other subjects, we are able to judge each other better. Usually, however, our judgments are soft and loving; but there are times when there are teeth in them, too. For instance, three congregations recently did not measure up to the Diocesan standards for mission. So COAC did not recommend full funding for them until they met these standards.

This raised the good question that Alice Mann asked tonight, which is often raised by COAC people, too: "Why aren't all congregations in Pennsylvania judged by these same criteria? If COAC holds up this standard for us and enforces it, why not on all of the congregations, including the finest parishes in the Diocese?"

COAC also tries to use as many of the Diocesan resources as it can. We have had stewardship education and we have had evangelism education, for instance. We have had an excellent presentation on our new and growing Hispanic ministry. Most recently, we were taught by the Rev. John Cochrane, the Director of the Lutheran's excellent inner-city program.

COAC has a standard budget form, reflecting current statistic projections for the coming year of each congregation, including program descriptions. Property evaluations are also required for every congregation, with a seven-year projection for repairs and maintenance, so we have some idea of when the boilers are going to blow up or the roofs cave in; and presently we are engaged in encouraging partnerships between congregations that are more affluent and congregations that are less affluent. We have guidelines prepared for this and, as you know, some partnerships have already been formed in a more casual and informal way and have been helpful. COAC congregations have a lot to give and a lot to learn; the more affluent congregations do, too.

One of COAC's main tasks, of course, is to apportion the Diocesan grant of $275,000 this year. We hope it will be at least $350,000 next year. Here the various congregations engage in a bit of competition, which is inevitable; at the same time, however, it is also loving and fair. It is good to see persons holding back on their own needs in order to fund the needs of others and this often happens.

We sometimes agree that the money has not been well spent by certain congregations and in that case peers put pressure on peers. Then it is not "the Bishop" telling them to shape up but their friends and colleagues. "Yes, your roof is leaking and you need a grant to repair it. We understand that. First of all, however, we want to know what goes on underneath the roof. Do you need a roof at all? For what?"

That's all I want to say in regard to the mission of COAC. We know that COAC is not necessarily the only way to make such decisions and to do such work. One can imagine other ways to do it. We may be called to have a new kind of organization or system in the future. So far COAC has been working well but there is nothing sacred about it.

It is true to say that members of COAC, when we are at our best, are not concerned mainly for survival. We care for effective Christian witness and ministry both to individuals and to society. We want our congregations to be centers of Christian life and redemption both for persons and for the community. So I am disturbed to sense in the Diocese that, at this moment, there seems to be a polarization between those two Gospel mandates. I hope and pray that those who represent the two poles will find ways to meet and try to agree on a common ministry that supports the full Gospel, which calls us to a ministry dedicated to personal integrity and salvation, and equally dedicated to social righteousness and justice.

I think it true to say that COAC believes that conversion without social action is cheap grace and that social action without conversion is cheap works.

ALCOHOL, ALCOHOL ABUSE, AND ALCOHOLISM COMMITTEE

Report for Journal of 198th Convention
October 1981

The 1979 General Convention passed a resolution that requested each diocese to appoint a committee that would develop a policy on alcoholism which will:

1. Provide a written procedure for treatment of clergy and diocesan employees and members of their families who suffer from the illness of alcoholism.
2. Include in its policy a statement covering the use of alcoholic beverages at church functions and/or on church property, with particular emphasis on the provision of non-alcoholic beverages.
3. Provide an employee's policy statement which includes assurances of job security and insurance coverage for those completing a prescribed course of alcoholic treatment.

In July of 1980 Bishop Ogilby appointed a committee on Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (4A) to carry out these mandates. The Rev. Glenn M. Matis was appointed chairperson. The committee worked for six months to develop these policies. The committee submitted its final recommendations to the Standing Committee. On February 24, 1981 the Standing Committee endorsed these recommendations. Copies of these policies are available today or from Fr. Matis (1-598-3405).

The Procedures for Alcoholic Clergy are self-explanatory. The Use of Alcohol at Church Functions needs to be studied by each vestry and priest; in particular, guideline #2 needs to be examined. Each congregation should decide when it is and is not appropriate to serve alcohol at a church function. The committee and Bishop Ogilby realize that each parish has different values and norms concerning the use of alcohol so that a diocesan policy describing appropriate and inappropriate times/functions would be unrealistic and unwise. We do, however, request that each parish develop a policy that would describe appropriate times/functions to serve alcohol. The committee would appreciate receiving a copy of this policy.

The committee's definition of alcoholism is as follows: "Alcoholism is a chronic, progressive, and treatable disease. It affects the physical, emotional, mental, vocational, spiritual, and social areas of the alcoholic's life." This disease is one of the leading health problems of our American society. According to government statistics, at least 10% of the population contracts the disease of alcoholism. This government study also noted that 90% of Episcopalians drink alcoholic beverages.

On September 15, 1981, the 4A Committee and the Family Life Ministry Committee sponsored a half-day conference for the clergy entitled "The Pastor's Ministry to Alcoholics." The workshop was attended by 35 people. The feedback sheets indicated that the majority of those attending found the program helpful to them in their ministry. It is our expectation to hold another workshop in the fall of 1982 that will deal with the alcoholic and his/her family.

A 20-hours value clarification program is also offered by Fr. Matis. This course helps young people and adults to clarify their values about the drug called alcohol. The overall goals of this program are:

1. to help the group discover what constitutes responsible and irresponsible drinking;
2. to deal with the facts, feelings, myths, and cultural attitudes about alcohol;
3. to describe the disease of alcoholism;
4. to provide an atmosphere where the group members can express their feelings and thoughts about alcohol, drinking, drunkenness, and family, spouse, and the extended community's drinking patterns, norms, and customs; and
5. to prevent drunkenness.

Participants in previous programs have found this course helpful in making them aware of their drinking patterns.

A half-day meeting of the committee will be held on November 10, 1981 to set goals for the next 5 years. Three of our 1982 goals will be to:

1. receive funding from the diocesan budget for extended programs and parttime staff;
2. present a resolution about alcoholism to the Diocesan Convention; and
3. speak in every deanery about the disease of alcoholism.

In April, 1982, our committee will sponsor a meeting of the Province III Alcoholism Committees. This conference will take place at St. Margaret's House. A flyer describing this event may be obtained by calling Fr. Reese Friedman at 673-1012.

On Saturday, May 22, a quiet day for recovering alcoholic Episcopalians (men and women) will be held at St. Margaret's House. The Rev. Dr. John M. Holt will be the conductor. A flyer describing this event is available by calling Fr. Holt at 527-5229.

The 4A Committee is a broad based one. We have social drinkers, recovering alcoholics, men, women, priests, lay people, professionals, non-professionals and minorities represented. Anyone interested in becoming a committee member is invited to call the chairperson and speak to him about serving.

Respectfully submitted,

PROGRAM-BUDGET COMMITTEE

Bishop, Members of Convention:

This year the Resolutions relating to the Diocesan Program-Budget for 1982 are contained in Resolution R-2 in your packet. There are three Resolutions:

Resolution A relates to the adoption of the proposed Program-Budget for 1982, which was printed in the Diocesan News. This document has been developed with the Long-Range Plan of the Diocese as a basis. This is something new in our process. Mr. Andrew Hunter, Chairman of the Diocesan Program-Budget Committee, will speak to it in a moment.

Resolution B provides for suspension of the Canon regarding the Assessment. This has been the customary practice of our Conventions since 1970 in connection with the adoption of our budgets.

Resolution C provides for receipt of pledges from congregations and adjustment of the Budget by Diocesan Council during the year, if necessary.

Mr. Hunter, Chairman of the Diocesan Program-Budget Committee, will present the proposed Progam-Budget for 1982 to you at this time, on behalf of Diocesan Council which commends it to you. Andy and the members of his Committee, and Jan Duncan of the Bishop's Staff, who has worked closely and intensively with the Committee as Staff Liaison during the past year, deserve our special thanks for all they have done in putting the Budget together for us this year. It is very important work. In a very concrete way, the Program-Budget that we adopt expresses what we believe our serving ministry as Christians, in this Diocese, at this time, should be.

And now, if someone will move Resolution A, Mr. Hunter will speak to it.

Resolution C.

Presentation
Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania
October 26, 1981
By Andrew McA. Hunter, Chairman Program Budget Committee

Bishop, members of convention, guests and friends. We're going to talk about money and about what money will do in the action of the Church. There are two parts of financing of the Diocese. One part is the actual program budget, which this body needs to approve in terms of moving it into implementation. The second part are funds that are donated or designated gifts for work within the Church but are not part of the program and not subject to approval by this body.

I'd like to deal with the second first, very quickly, since there is no action required by Convention. You are provided in your packet of materials, on page 1, a complete catalog of the funds not included in the Diocese program budget. This has been included for the first time in the material shared with convention. It has been available over the years but we thought it would be important to share it with you since it does reflect part of the work of this diocese at large.

Now, let's move into the program budget activities which do require your direct attention. Here I would turn you to the budget that was distributed in your material and look at the upper right hand corner. I've been advised not to go over this document in detail in the interest of time. But I would like to take you through some of the highlights. While the 1981 Diocese Program Budget is in fact fast becoming history, some comments are relevant to stage the 1982 proposed budget. Perhaps you will remember that the 1981 budget was, at best, a continuation of the immediate prior years, with modest adjustments here and there. Why? Because we only had a projected budget increase of $40,000. Any significant budget changes would have caused dislocation and disruption to existing program areas. Secondly, the long range plan was awaiting approval, which has happened. We have worked very hard to have the 1982 budget directly reflect the directions indicated in the long range plan. I should note, and Phil House mentioned this morning, that a very positive event occurred as 1981 unfolded. The projected $40,000 increase in income was delightfully rendered obsolete by increases in pledges and higher interest income than projected. It became a $140,000 increase instead of a $40,000 increase. The 1981 approved budget was adjusted and is included in the 1981 figure used in the document you have.

The 1982 budget is built with the long range plan as its foundation. The development process was also modified in an effort to involve wider input, interaction and involvement, as well as evaluation of the programs. Let me highlight some of the process. A wide appeal was made for funding and over 30 requests were received. Committee members took direct responsibility for the different requests and did in-depth study and familiarization with the program areas. A new independent group was established this year to begin to develop an evaluation process, much along the Venture line. This process is still in its infancy but it is beginning to show results in terms of making sure that what we commit our funds to are actually performing as planned. Council also gave us a mandate and direction clearly that we should try and fund less well rather than fund more less well. In other words do a few things very well. The preliminary budgets were shared widely. We sought and got wide reaction from our preliminary budget with over 90 responses, which were indeed helpful to us. Mailings were done, the program has been printed and it is the program that you're looking at. It is widely available in the diocese.

Let me share something else with you in terms of how we tried to reflect the long range plan. Many of the programs that have been funded over the years had to be carefully evaluated in terms of the future. The committee developed four areas of question that were helpful to us in our considerations. I share them with you;

The first area was: Upon what authority do we consider funding this program? Does it come to us supported by Diocese Council, the Bishop, the long range plan, Convention or where? What is the authority for this program?

The second question we asked of ourselves: If this program were not already in the budget, would we go out and look for it and develop it?

The third area: Is anyone else doing this same program? Is there a redundancy in this program in terms of its availability to meet the need in several or other ways?

Fourth and final area: What proportion of the funding comes from us? And what would be the impact of the program and its people if the diocese funding ceased.

So those four general areas of questions helped us add nine new areas to the budget we recommend to you for 1982, in turn, six program areas were recommended for discontinuing as part of the diocesan budget.

We have a new level of detail and objective for each program area which is provided in the document. Let us highlight some points since there is so much detail. The first is the income which is going to increase by almost 9%. You can see how that is broken down. Note that the income from congregations is the engine that drives the train. On the expense side you can see how that is broken down by various categories as we move it into the long range plan format. We are taking the directive of the long range plan and giving more of ourselves to the National Church, in going from 27% to 29% with the goal of moving to 50% in another 9 years.

So it is with these comments that the budget is recommended to you for approval with a deficit of $34,760. We are advised that we may end this year with a modest surplus so that we may not be talking about $34,760. We believe that this group and the representatives that you represent will come forward in their church stewardship and meet the challenge and eliminate that deficit. Thank you very much.

Note: This budget was subsequently approved with an additional $20,000 appropriation made for COAC, thus the deficit was increased from $34,760 to $54,760. The convention referred the resolution of this deficit to Diocesan Council.

2. TRINITY CHURCH, Ambler
3. ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Norristown

The Committee on Incorporation finds that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the CHURCH OF ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY, Philadelphia, are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and offers the following resolution:

> RESOLVED: That the proposed amendment to Articles of Incorporation of the CHURCH OF ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY, Philadelphia, be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to apply to the proper Court for approval of the same.

The Committee on Incorporation finds that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of TRINITY CHURCH, Ambler, are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and offers the following resolution:

> RESOLVED: That the proposed amendment to Articles of Incorporation of TRINITY CHURCH, Ambler, be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to apply to the proper Court for approval of the same.

The Committee on Incorporation finds that the proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Norristown, which are designed to permit both men and women to serve as members of the Vestry, is in accordance with the Model Articles of Incorporation but that the Articles, as so amended, will not conform substantially to the Model Articles of Incorporation as approved by Convention in 1969, in that they do not contain a provision corresponding to Article 9, Section 2 of the Model Articles approved by Convention in 1969. The Committee on Incorporation notes that the Rector, Rector's Warden and Clerk of the Vestry claim that because of extraordinary circumstances, the proposed amendment should be approved and set forth the following considerations:

1) The original Charter permitted the election of "persons" (rather than "men") to the Vestry, although it is probable that no one in 1813 would have thought of electing a woman. In 1906 this provision was amended in a restrictive way by changing the word "person" to "men". In view of the subsequent development of women's suffrage, and the more recent impact of the women's "liberation movement". to say nothing of the now commonly accepted norms of equal participation in the democratic process, the Vestry and people of St. John's believe that it is time to rescind the lamentable amendment of 1916, and restore the broader provisions of the original Charter.

2) There has been a great deal of internal strife at St. John's during the past four or five years, aggravated substantially by our last attempt (in 1979) to amend our Charter. At that time, the proposed amendments (because they embraced the requirements of the Committee on Incorporation) were defeated by the parish. It is unlikely that they would be approved again in the foreseeable future without additional strife and long-lasting bitterness. We believe that such a sweeping revision of our Charter is not worth the price of a deeply-divided parish, when the one thing we seek is the eligibility of women to serve on the Vestry, as originally provided by our Charter.

The members of the Committee on Incorporation believe that under the circumstances, the proposed amendment should be reported to Convention for such action as Convention may think appropriate. Accordingly, the Committee on Incorporation, on motion duly made, seconded and carried, determined that the proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, Norristown, be reported to Convention for such action as Convention may think appropriate under the circumstances.

3. Other Matters

The members of the Committee on Incorporation reviewed the Model Articles of Incorporation as approved by Convention in 1969 and the footnote thereto. The Committee on Incorporation believes that the Model Articles and Notes should be reviewed and revised prior to the next Diocesan Convention.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard K. Bauder
A. Edward Chinn
John A. Clark
C. Leighton Erb
G. Selden Pitt
Edward R. Carpenter, Chairman
COMMITTEE ON INCORPORATION

The authority for the resolution in connection with the incorporation of a new parish is set forth in Canon 1.3.1 and the authority for the resolution in respect of the amendment of Articles of Incorporation appears in Canon 1.4.1.
